SEATTLE PREP
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

FOREWORD

On February 15, 1852, Arthur Denny, Carson Boren, and William Bell rowed from Alki point to stake out claims on the east side of Elliott Bay. And thus Seattle, gateway to the gold of Alaska, was born. In the succeeding one hundred years a great many people have settled in Seattle to obtain that Alaskan gold and to make this city the most beautiful in the United States.

Four years ago another group of people passed through the portals of Seattle Preparatory School. They were searching for something as valuable as gold—knowledge, the gateway to success. Now, armed with this knowledge, the Class of '52 goes forth into the world to be worthy citizens of Seattle, the United States, and, eventually, heaven.

DEDICATION

Without them, there would be no new building at Prep. Without them, there would be no Echo. Without them, there would be no scholarships for deserving grade school graduates. Yes, they have contributed more than their share towards making Prep the fine school that it is. By now you have probably guessed that "they" are the Seattle Prep Mothers.

Even after they have finished their ironing etc., they still can find time to help better the educational facilities of Prep. This year the Mothers' Club sponsored the Curtis Publishing Drive which financed the Echo, and also raised money for the school's scholarship fund.

And so, in view of their magnanimous efforts, we dedicate this Centennial Echo to the most loyal and loving friends that Seattle Prep has, the Mothers' Club.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the members of the Class of '52, do hereby bequeath to our successors as SENIORS at Prep, the following items:

To all juniors who have the good fortune to take typing, RAY BROWN leaves his favorite teacher—Mr. Pauson.

Pat Gleeson is to receive from BILL BALDWIN and JAY LOCKETT the right and privilege to tell all kinds, types, etc. of jokes to his classmates.

"My Parking Spot in Volunteer Park" is left by WINN BRINDLE to Denny Murphy who is sure to put it to good use.

Mr. Jeff Pascoe is to be the proud owner of a Pearl Handled Bottle Opener left to him by JACK GUISE.

JOE LOWMAN leaves to any Junior who needs it, the name and address of his favorite J. P.

FRED LYONS gives to Bill Hooper his personal slave, Ray Soo, to carry his slide rule to and from Trig. class.

"BIG MOOSE," THE McMULLEN, leaves his ability to run to all small underclassmen who are afraid of Jesuits.

JOHN MINGUS bestows on Joe Meehan his draft card—with no strings attached!

JIM McGRATH unwillingly gives his job at Tradewell to Ray Kealy so he can make an honest buck for a change.

FRITZ RITTER has stated that he wishes the remains of his '36 Chev to go to Paul Swimelar providing Paul can make it run.

LOU ROSELLI leaves his fine Irish Tenor voice to Mr. Keys who in turn will pass it on to the Glee Club.

FRANK KALBERER will give, to any junior who can collect it, the right to the $15.00 owed him by BOB WOODS—who won't be leaving for another year.

BOB MOONEY will generously bestow his collection of Hawaiian Sport Shirts on the junior class if Jack Rosling will finance his trip to the Island.

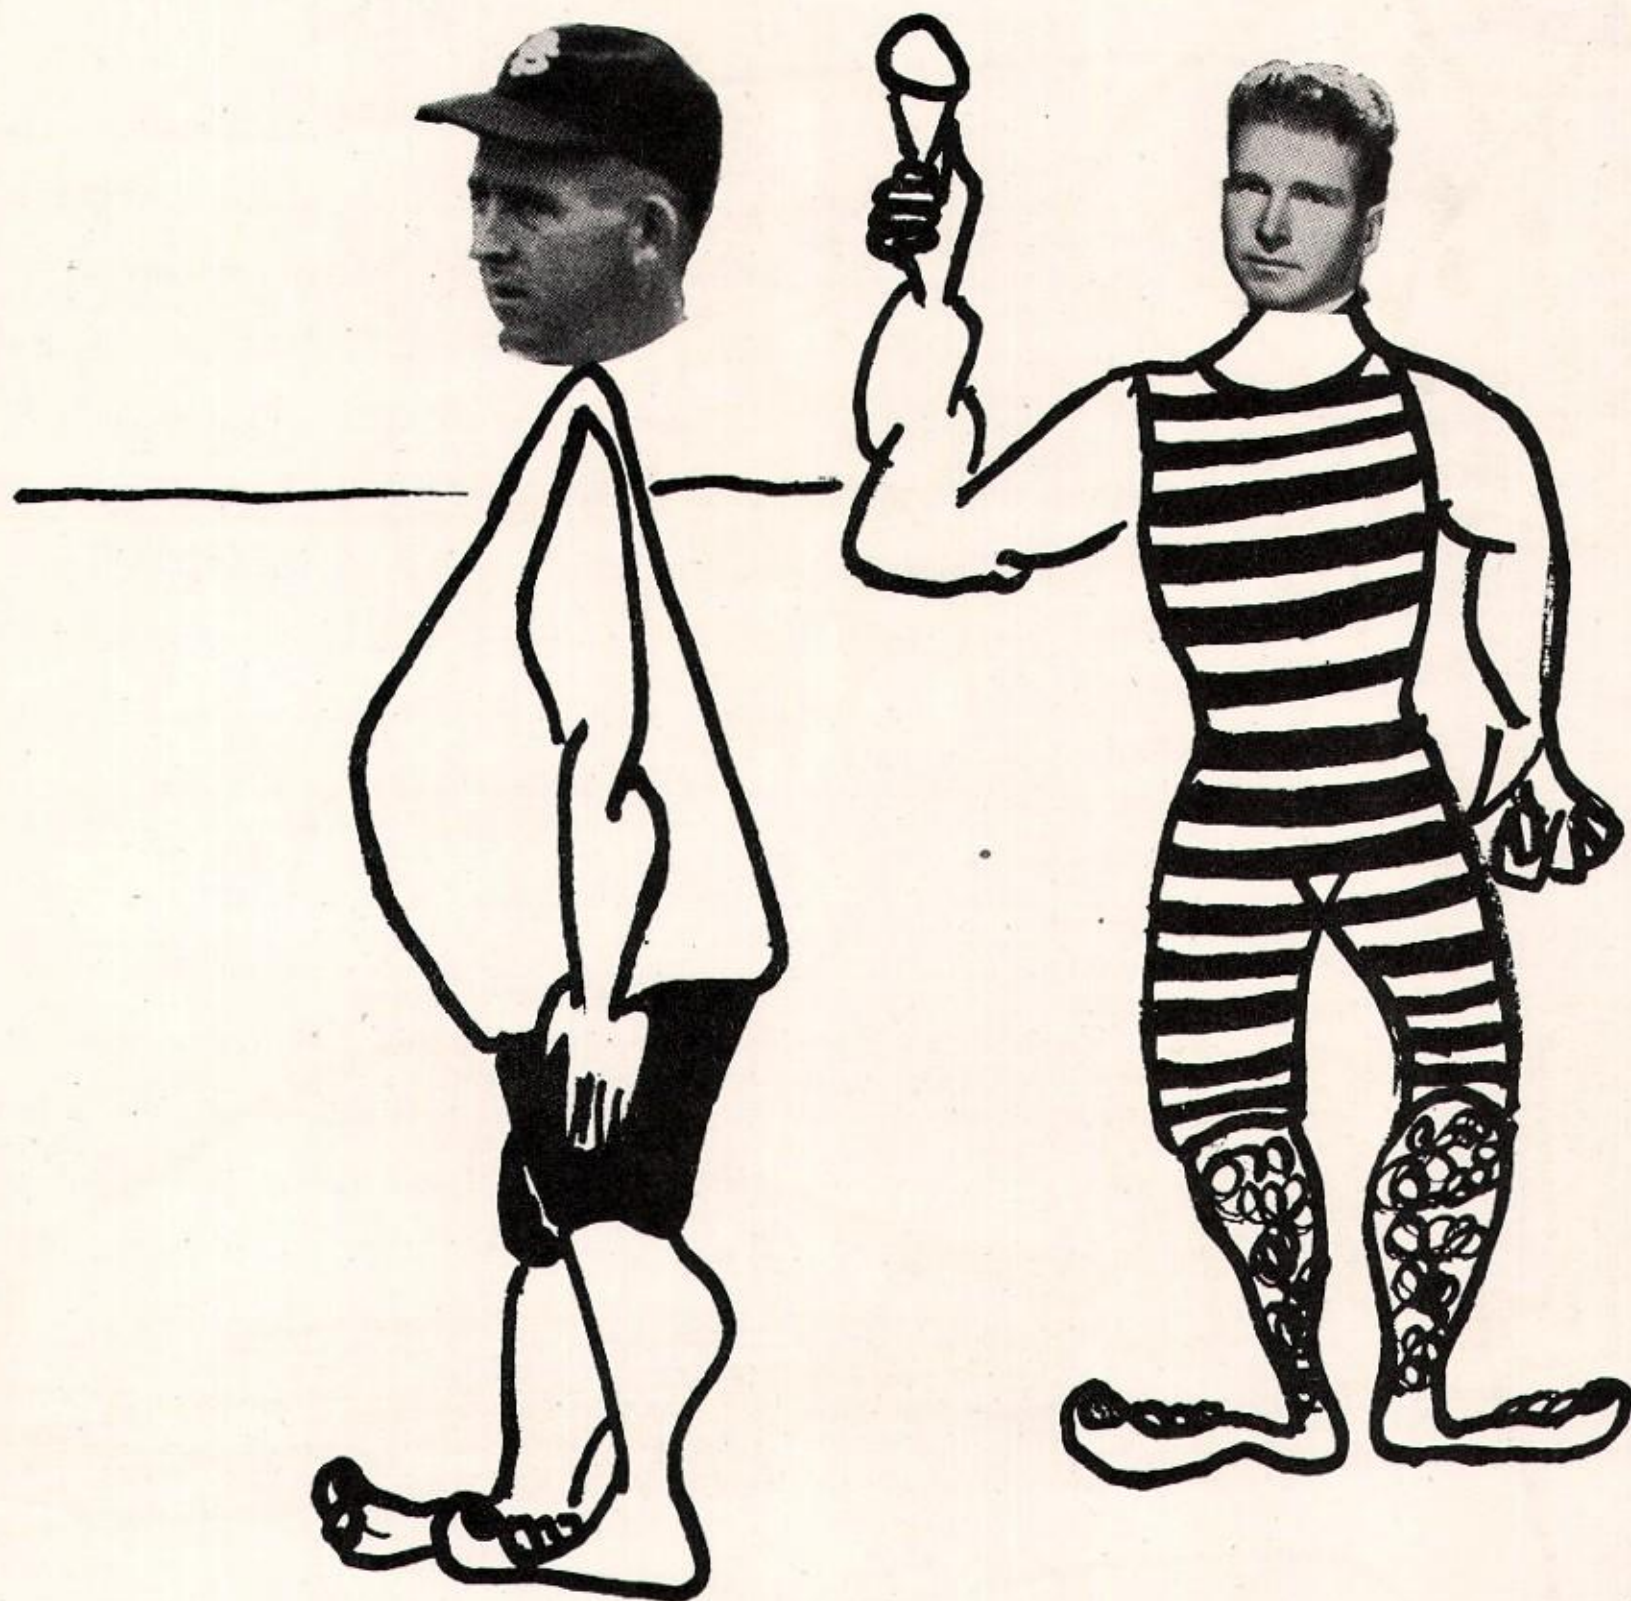

HAL BRINDLE leaves his warm friendly smile to the Jesuits who will place it where it is needed most.

PHIL CLARK leaves his "Shapely Legs" to Clare Markey to be used during Basketball season.

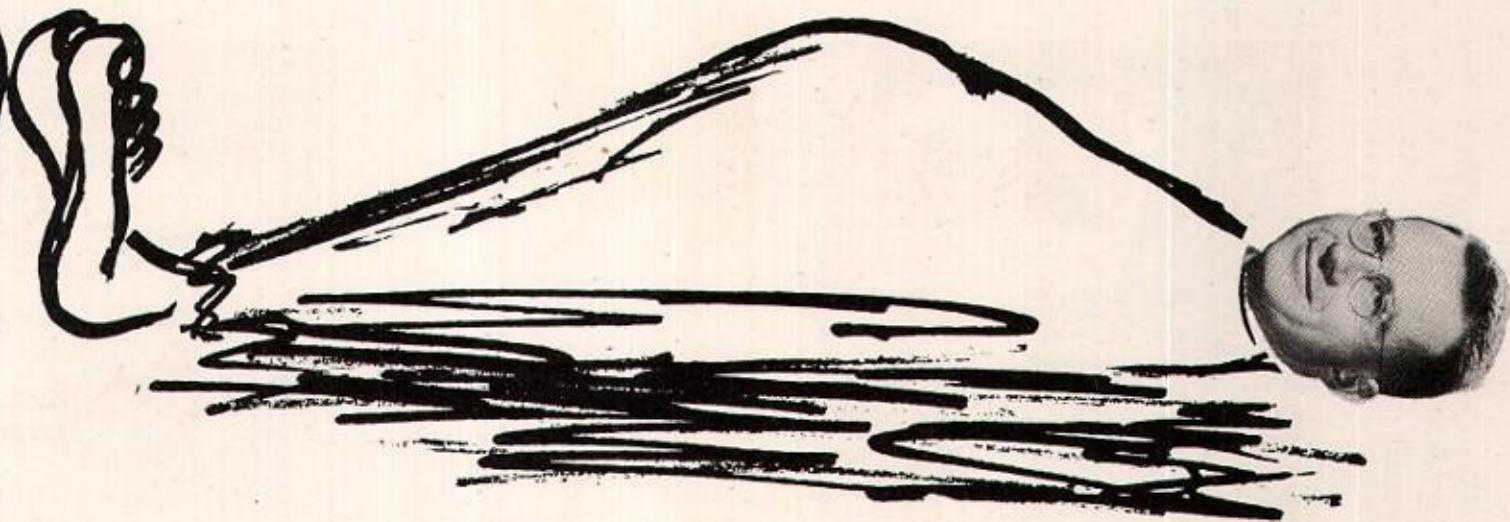

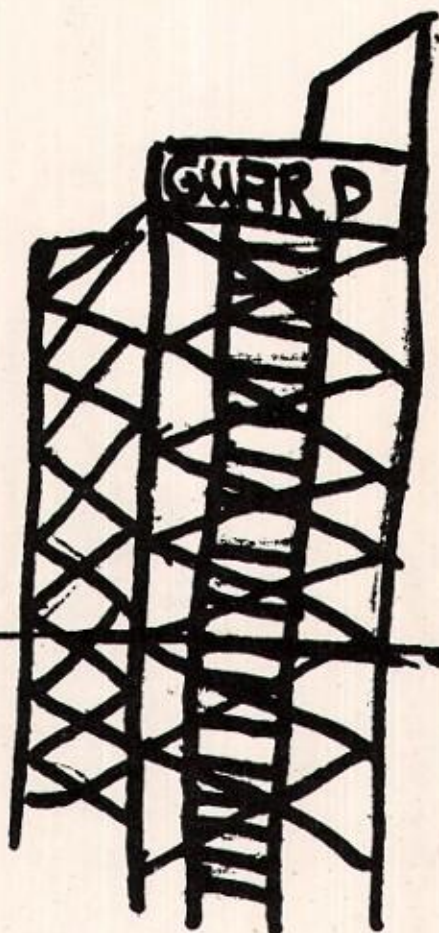

KARL VEIT will give his "Cycle Jacket to any critter who can "out-critter" him.

STEVE LxRIVIERE leaves his athletic abilities to Bob Denini who needs them.

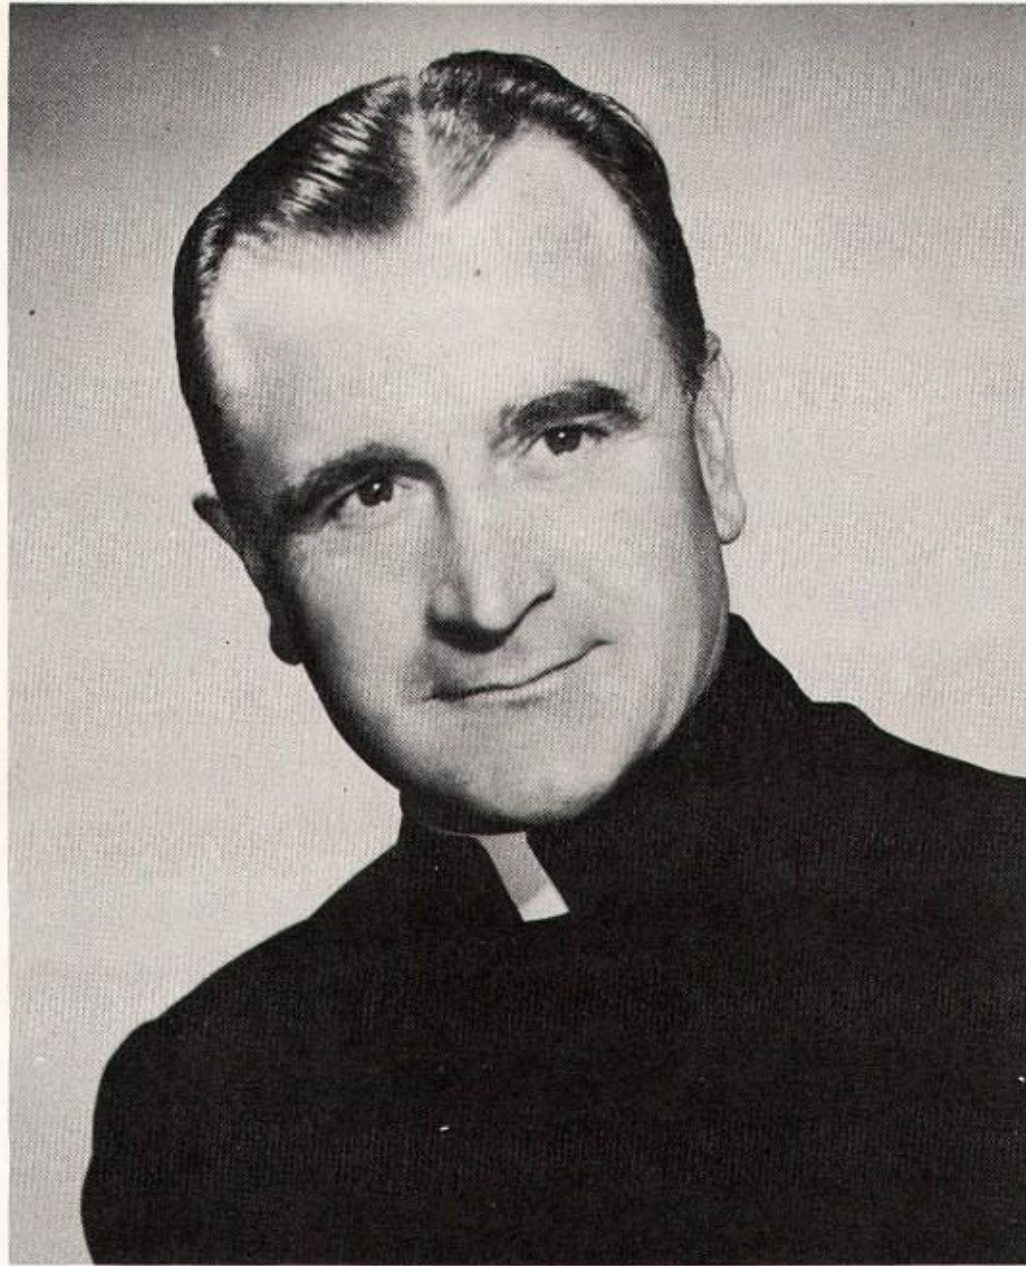

Last, but not least, the seniors leave to the rest of the school, the new addition in the hopes that they will keep it in good order for the up-and-coming classes of "PANTHERS" who are sure to have fun chasing the Jesuits around the halls of the "NEW PREP."

CLASS OF

1948 - 1949

We were 109 strong when we entered Garrigan gym one early September morning some four odd years ago. After considerable debate, it was decided that we should start as freshmen. We further agreed that we should always be liberal to our teachers, and no matter what circumstances might prevail, we should always treat them as equals. This was a difficult decision and was received by only a slim majority.

Election then being at hand we chose Joe Quinn as president of 1A, Karl Voegtlin 1B, Chris Melgard 1C, and Bob Woods 1D. The respective moderators were Fr. Shannon, Mr. Purdy, Mr. Allen, and Mr. Graisy. Jim Haley and Tom Budnick were then chosen to head the two groups of the frosh Sodality.

Other activities saw Lou Roselli and Chris Melgard take to the gridiron while John Ryan and Bill Baldwin chose to take refuge in the snow-capped hills with the Ski team. Countless others supported the smaller teams and prepared themselves for their later years.

1949 - 1950

The new year meant new officers and increased activity. Class officers elected for us "sophomores" were Jerry Murphy 2A, John Carroll 2B, Jack George 2C, and Jim Davis 2D. Moderators were Fr. Sneeringer, Fr. Hess, Mr. Toner, and Mr. Allen.

The Sodality's two groups were combined into one and Jim Haley was chosen as prefect for the second straight year.

Public speaking attracted debaters Chuck Beytebiere, John Topel, Ken Nyberg, and Jerry Murphy. The annual elocution contest saw Jim McGrath, Jerry Murphy, Ron Cass, and John Carroll representing the sophomores.

At the end of the first semester, Jerry Murphy became Sports editor for the PANTHER.

Sports was one of the main attractions to the eager "soph." Karl Voegtlin, Joe Quinn, Lou Roselli, Phil Clark, and Winn Brindle each earned a coveted "S" for his pigskin performance. Basketball season produced Clark, Voegtlin and Quinn with another letter. In the spring the diamond sparkled with Joe Quinn, Lou Roselli, Jack George, and Karl Voegtlin. The cinder sport was not neglected as Chris Melgard, Ron and Dan McMullen and John Mingus saw to that.

1950 - 1951

Starting the year off with a bang Jerry Murphy was elected president of 3-A, Karl Voegtlin 3-B, and Jack George 3-C. Frs. Renner, Sneeringer, and Hess stepped into the jobs of moderators.

For his third straight year Jim Haley captures prefect of the Sodality.

Prep takes second place in the Cross-State League. Junior starlets of the team were Lou Roselli, Joe Quinn, Phil Clark, Karl Voegtlin, Winn Brindle, Pat Tomkins, Chris Melgard and Ron Farrell.

The Basketball Team captures sixth place in the State Tournament. Contributing their talents to the success were juniors Karl Voegtlin, Joe Quinn, Jack George, Steve LaRiviere, and Phil Clark.

Bill Baldwin and John Ryan are a great aid to the Ski team.

Baseball finds Jack George, Lou Roselli, Karl Voegtlin, Ray Brown, Joe Quinn, Bill Baldwin, Ralph Rafenelli, Carlo Leonetti, and Pat Tomkins lending their aid to the Varsity nine.

Those of the class possessing a fluency of speech contributed their share to Prep's honor. Thespians included Chuck Beytebiere, Jim McGrath, Mike Weber, and Pat Cook. Prominent in the field of Public Speaking were Jim McGrath, John Topel, Ken Nyberg, Chuck Beytebiere, and Jerry Murphy. Finalists in Senior elocution were Jim McGrath, and Jerry Murphy, while Ken Nyberg found himself a place among the finalists of the Hearst Oratory Contest.

1951 - 1952

We are finally seniors, and we feel we have reached our Shangri-la. Jerry Murphy steps into his Student-body president position. Frs. Logan, McDonnell, and Lamphier, S. J., become moderators while class prexies elected are Karl Voegtlin 4A, Joe Quinn 4B, and Mike Murphy 4C.

The Sodality is divided into four committees—the Catholic Truth, the Marian, the Eucharistic, and the Apostolic—each group being represented by students from the different classes. It is headed by Fr. Zelanak, S. J., with Jim Haley as prefect.

Presidents selected for the various school clubs include Karl Voegtlin, Letterman Club president; Charlie Beytebiere, Harlequin Club; and John Topel, president of the Debate Club, and Ken Nyberg, president of the Panther Club.

Construction on a new addition to the school progresses throughout the year. It will be ready for the next school year.

Fall brings Football into the spotlight. The list of seniors contributing their efforts to the squad is long. They are Pat Tomkins, Chris Melgard, Karl Voegtlin, Phil Clark, Carlo Leonetti, Joe Quinn, Lou Roselli, John Mingus, Ron McMullen, John Ryan, Hal Brindle, Ron Farrell, Tom Budnick, Winn Brindle, Jerry Kenny, and Fred Lyons. Karl Voegtlin is named to the All Cross-State team—All American Catholic team.

Following this, the general interest turns to Basketball. After a highly successful season, Joe Quinn, Jack George, Karl Voegtlin, Steve LaRiviere, John Carroll, and Phil Clark walk away with their well deserved "S." Named on the Catholic All-American team is Karl Voegtlin.

John Ryan, "Moose" McMullen, and Bill Baldwin, represent the seniors on the Ski team.

The Harlequins meet with a very successful year. The first of three plays is "Harvey" which brings Ron Cass, Pat Cook, and Jim MacGrath acclaim. Next is "The Bishop Misbehaves." Adding their ability to the cast are Jim MacGrath, Fritz Ritter, and Charlie Beytebiere. For the final production of the year, the Harlequins venture into a new field for Prep—a Shakespearian play, "Julius Caesar." Included in the cast are Charlie Beytebiere, Pat Cook, Frank Kalberer, Jim Whitman, Mike Kelliher, Jim MacGrath, Joe Raymaker, and Pat Meagher.

In the field of Public Speaking, Prep gains many new honors through the seniors. Ken Nyberg wins himself the first place cup in extemporaneous speaking and in impromptu, as well as a second place in extemp and debate. Jim MacGrath collects two second places, one for dramatic reading, the other for extemp. John Topel takes a first place in debate. Charlie Beytebiere shares the first place debate victory, and also comes in second for impromptu. Jerry Murphy wins top honors in the school for the Henry Clay Senior Oratory Contest. The Voice of Democracy Contest for the school is won by Ken Nyberg.

Many seniors make a three-day retreat at Manresa Hall, Port Townsend. The first is given by Fr. Dalgity, S. J., the second by Fr. Suver, S. J. All know it was time well spent.

John Topel becomes the valedictorian for the class. The salutatorian honor goes to Dan Kaiser.

This is but a brief account of our countless activities. Final exams and graduation are to follow. Then we leave behind the Blue—and—White and enter into the life for which we have long been preparing. The Class of "52" has gone far, and has proved itself outstanding in all fields of activities. It has shown its eagerness, its spirit, and its loyalty. With a trust in God, and devotion to our country, and a love of all men, we pass through the portals of time to the future, well-equipped to carry out our chosen roles in life.

ANTHONY FRANCIS ANGE

Rochester, New York

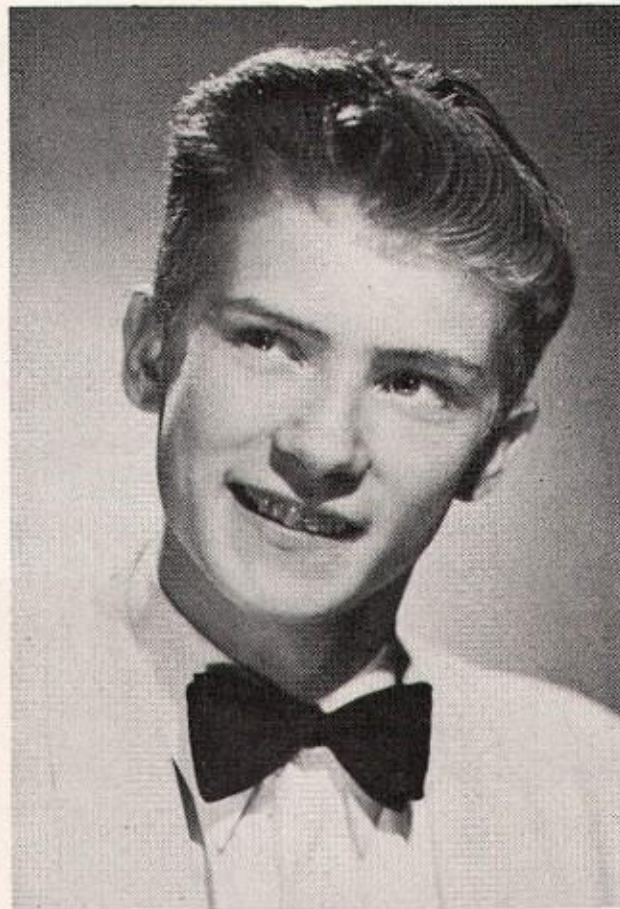

Tony came to Seattle from back East and went to St. John's where he graduated in 1948 before coming to Prep. He was a Sodalist in the first two years he spent at Prep. His remaining years have been devoted to his hobby, which is "staying away from Father Weisenberg while in school." He was a class officer in his senior year, and his ambition, a worthy one indeed, is to find Bob Woods a suitable car that runs. His favorite saying can be often heard in time of trouble, "Never fear, Ange is here."

WILLIAM FREDERICK BALDWIN

Seattle, Washington

"Clyde No. 1" is a local boy who determined to make good and graduated from St. Joseph's as a start in the right direction. Bill is one of the more active boys at Prep. His many and varied activities include: Echo Associate Editor, Ski Team, 1, 2, 3, 4—Co-captain 4, Baseball 1, 2, 3, Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4, Panther Club 3, 4, Debate Club 2, and he was also a member of the Prom Committee as a junior. Bill's ambition is to move Sun Valley to Miami Beach and his hobby is "Putting tops on Convertibles up and down." This Clyde's favorite saying is "No Shoot?"

MICHAEL WAYNE BOULANGER

Mobridge, South Dakota

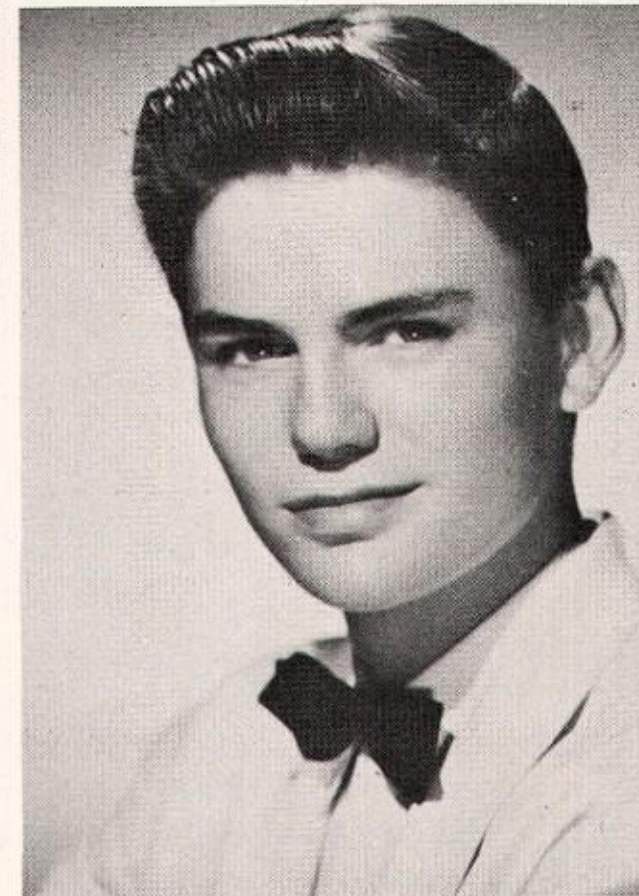

"Mike" or "Wayne," he answers to both, comes to us from Angle Lake Grade School. Because of constant employment his extra-curricular record isn't shown, but he is one of the more-popular boys in the senior class. He has a very worthy ambition, in which we all hope he will succeed, to make something of himself. He has a favorite saying which is often said in a slow drawl, "Could be," and this has been the cause of much grief to teachers in nice, quiet classes. He claims drawing as a hobby and he is really good at it.

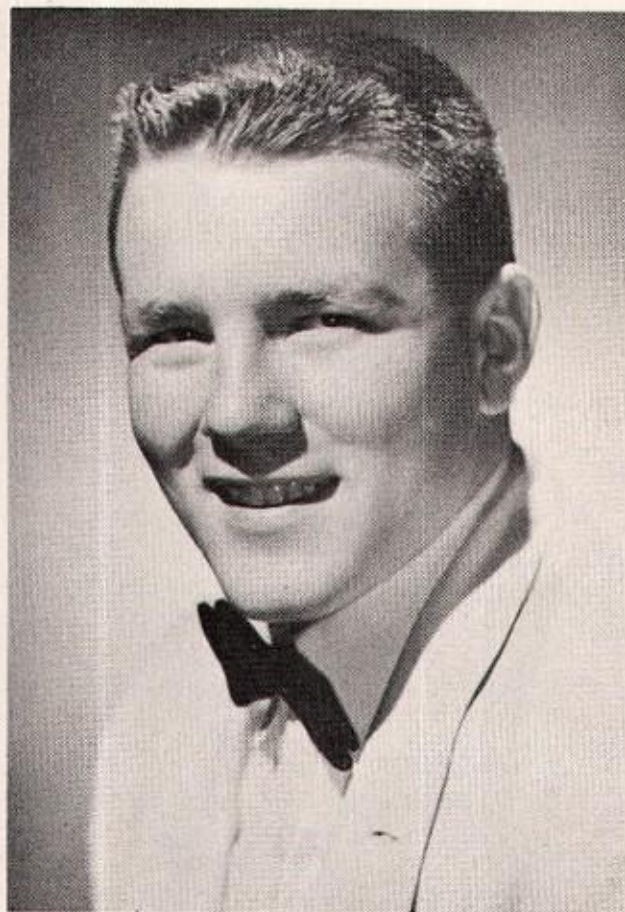

CHARLES JOSEPH BEYTEBIERE

Seattle, Washington

"Chuck" was born in Seattle, and graduated from St. Joseph's. He is a four-year Sodalist, a member of the Student Council, and a class officer 4. He is a member of the Panther Club 3, 4, Debate Club 1, 2, 3, 4, and Harlequin Club 3, 4; Prexy, of the latter 4. He starred in "Mist Before the Periscope" and "Julius Caesar," was also in "The Bishop" and "Spreading the News." He was a PANTHER reporter 2, 4, and Feature Editor of the ECHO 4. He has no ambition (off the Hill) and his favorite saying is, "What a blast!"

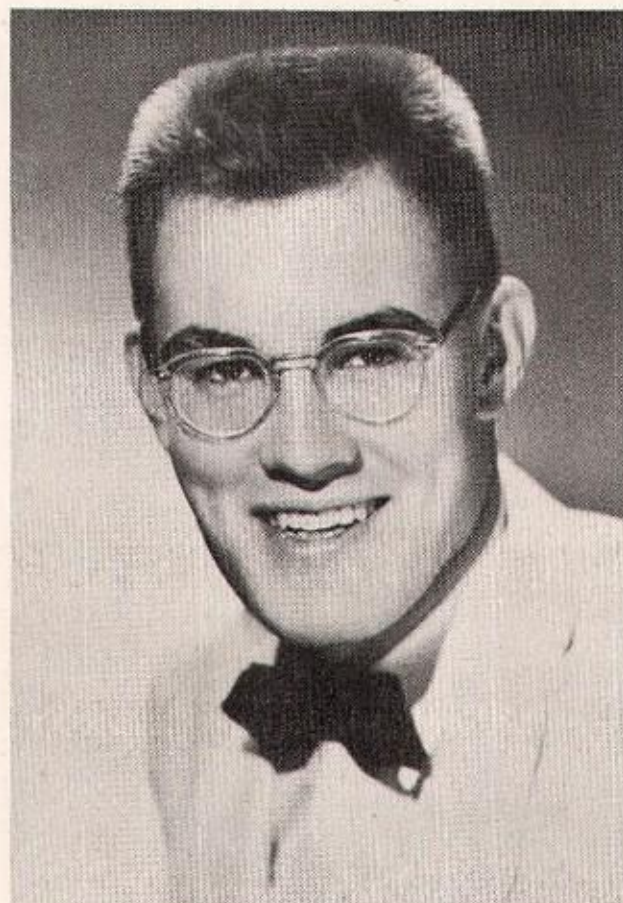

WINN FREDERICK BRINDLE

Ketchikan, Alaska

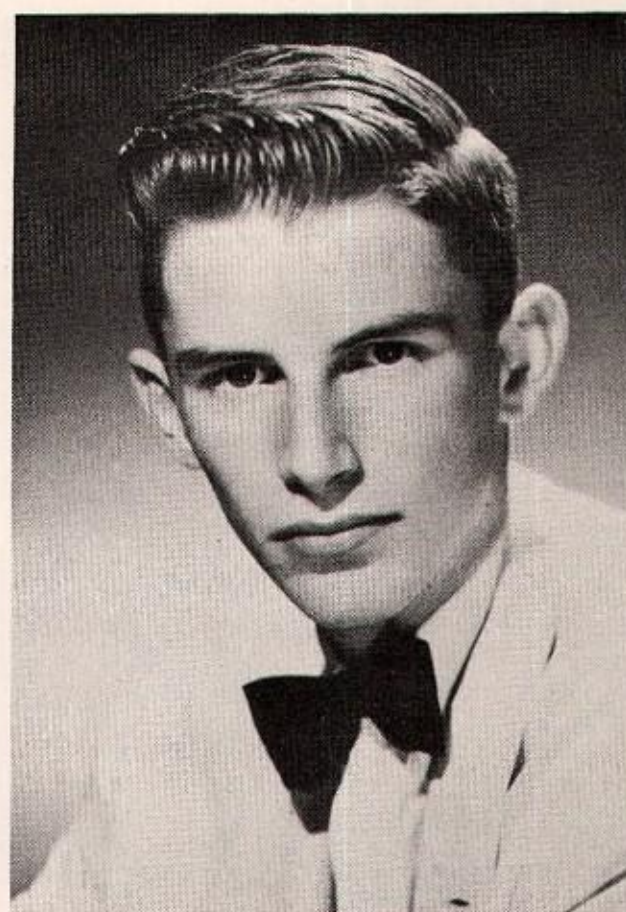

Winn transferred to Seattle Prep from Marymount in his sophomore year. His talents were first turned to football to which he gave most of his time, becoming a member of the Letterman's Club in his sophomore year and remaining a member during his last three years. He was also a class officer, ranking as Vice-president 2, 4, and he was an ardent Sodalist during his senior year. His ambition is to lead a successful Safari; and if he doesn't it will be through no fault of his own.

HAROLD ALEXANDER BRINDLE

Ketchikan, Alaska

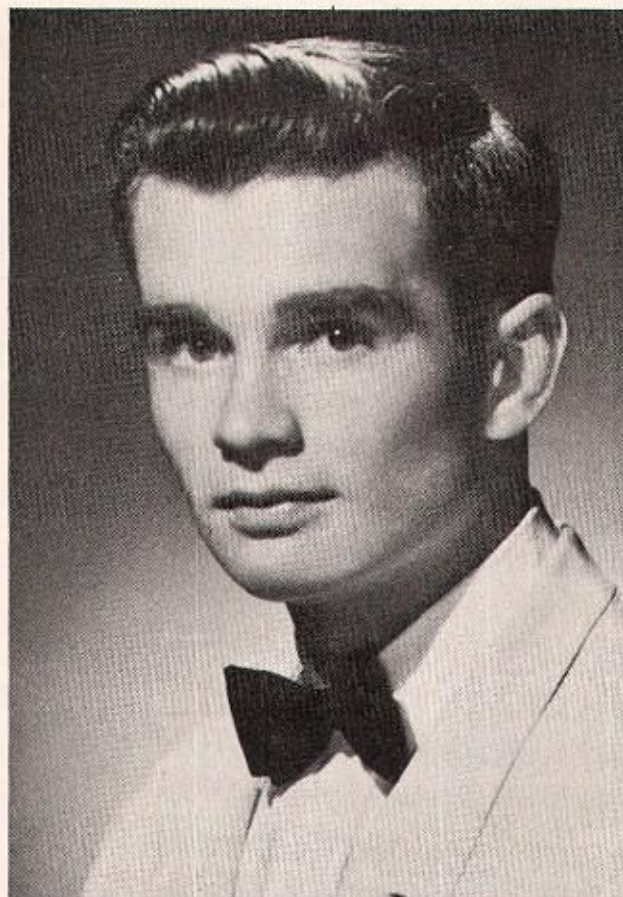

"Hal" came to Prep from St. Anne's in '48; turned out for football right away and played for all four years, Frosh 1, B-squad 2, Varsity 3, 4, as well as a Track man 2, 3, 4. He was a member of the Lettermen's Club 4, and an associate editor of the Echo. Hal's big ambition is to become a chemical engineer, and the way he is working for it shows promise. He was on the Honor Roll 1, 3, 4. Hal was a Sodalist for four years, and a member of the Pep Club 4. "Cousin Hal's" real hobby is helping Bill Baldwin put the tops on convertibles up and down.

RAYMOND EDWARD BROWN

Seattle, Washington

Ray is a local boy who came to Prep from St. Catherine's Grade School. Ray has been on the varsity baseball team for two years after spending a brace of seasons with the scrubs. He's a three-year Sodalist and a member of the Letterman's Club 3, 4; and the Harlequin Club. He has charge of the pictures for the Echo. Ray's ambition is to overthrow the dictatorship at Prep. He has a difficult hobby of "planting flowers on mossy roofs," and his favorite saying one which is heard quite a bit around the school, is "Neat Guy."

THOMAS MARION BUDINICH

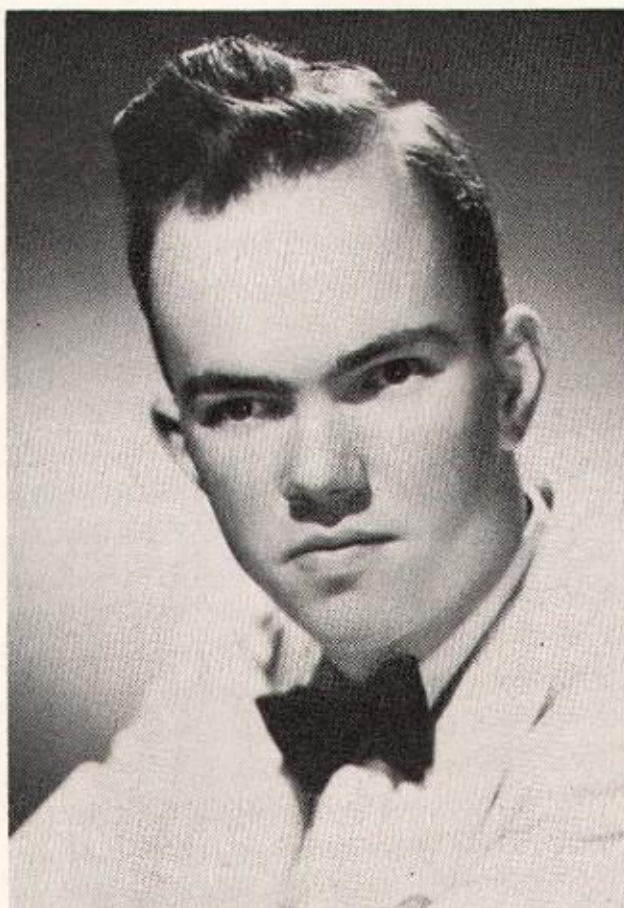

Seattle, Washington

Tom is another one of "those West Seattle boys." He's a four-year Sodalist, Freshman and Junior class officer, and a Freshman member of the Student Council in '48. Baseball 1, Football 1, 3, 4, Varsity 4, Track 3, 4, Letterman's Club 4. How he has managed to accomplish all of this and keep up his hobby of "Going out with the boys" is pretty tough. A nice-looking boy with a pleasing personality, Tom will probably some day succeed in his ambition, "To out-hustle Carroll."

JAMES JOSEPH BYRNE

Seattle, Washington

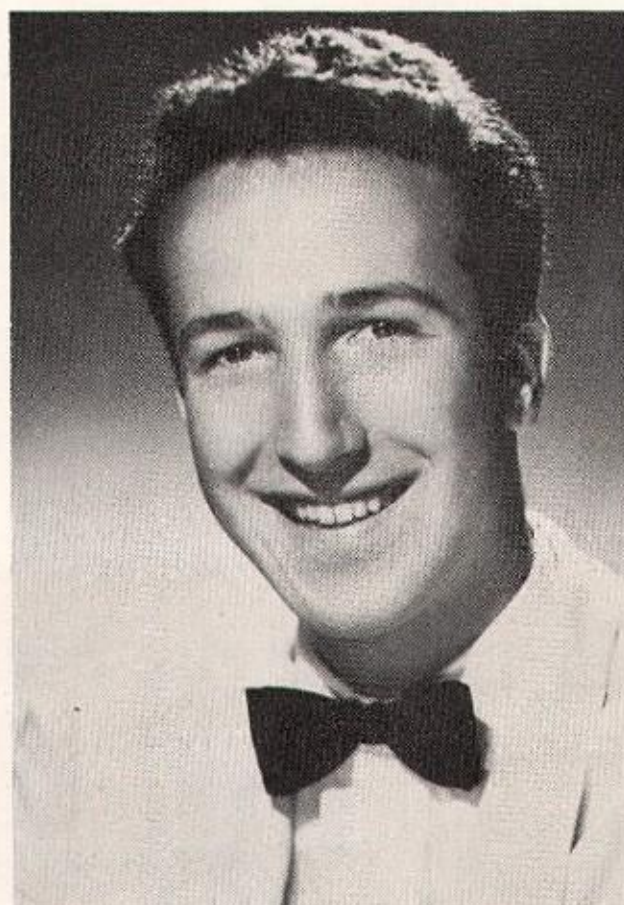

As a freshman Joe joined the Sodality and has been active ever since. In his sophomore year he was elected sergeant-at-arms of his class. But it wasn't until his Junior year, the third year after his entrance into the halls of Adelpia from St. Joseph's, that Joe came into his own. He suddenly became Mr. O'Dea's number one answer man in Greek class (following through this year to help Fr. Logan out). He was elected secretary of his class, and took up his hobby of amateur radio operator in his junior year also.

ROBERT LOUIS CARMODY

Seattle, Washington

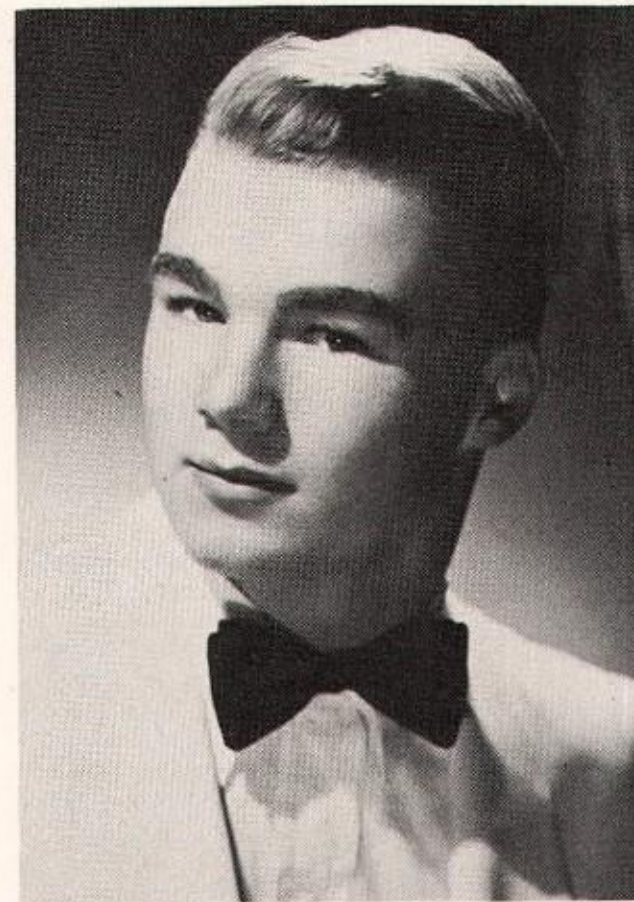

"Stretch" graduated from Holy Rosary, in Indian Country, and came to these hallowed grounds in the fall of '48. He was a member of the Sodality, and played Baseball 1, 2, and Basketball 1, 2. His ambition is to put more slot machines in West Seattle, and his hobby is collecting wooden nickles. He can almost always be heard spouting off with his famous "Jeezie Peezie!" at any time of day or night. Bob and Farrell both spend the better part of fourth period in tormenting Mr. Pauson in various ways.

RONALD HUGH CASS

Seattle, Washington

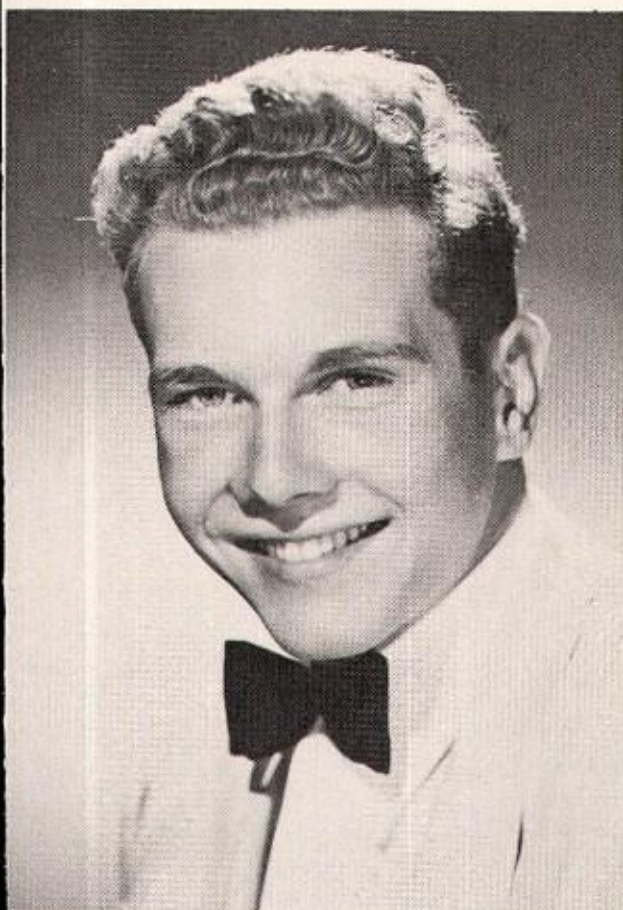

"Ron" graduated from St. Catherine's, and came to us from Roosevelt in his Sophomore year. He was a finalist in Junior Elocution as well as Panther Club 4, PANTHER 2, 3, 4, Pep Club Vice-President 4, and Echo Business Manager 4. Ron's most notable achievements were his performances in Harlequin productions. He was outstanding in his portrayal of Dr. Chumley in "Harvey" as well as doing excellent work on the production staff of "The Bishop Misbehaves." Even though his hobby is being serious, he wishes to teach at St. Nicholas. His saying?—"I wonder who's hissing her now?"

JOHN TALBOT CARROLL

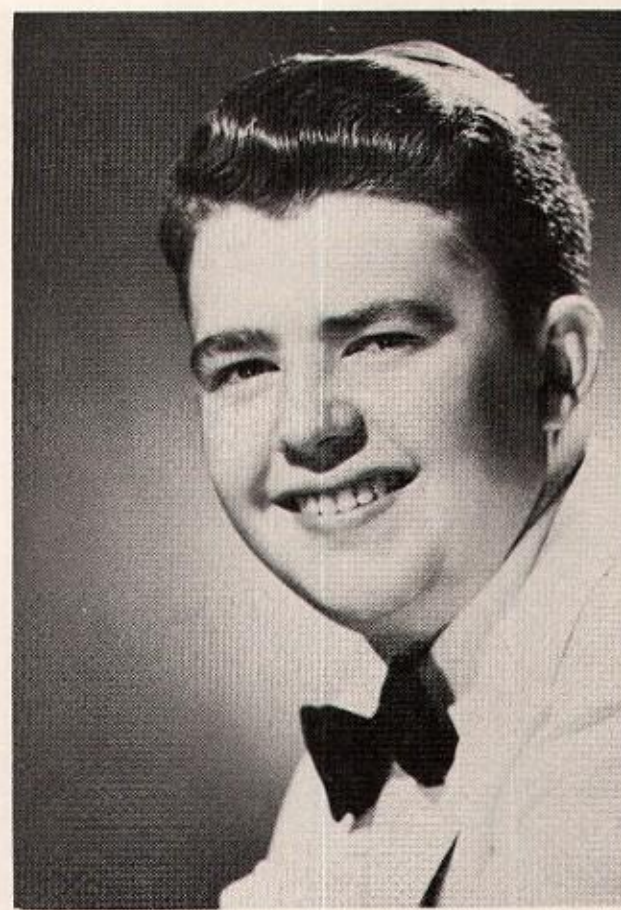

Seattle, Washington

An alumnus of that other famous school on the hill, St. Joe's, John came to Prep determined to make a name for himself. He was a standout basketball player, Cubs 1, B-squad 3, Varsity 4, as well as working on many organizations, Pep Club 3, 4; PANTHER Staff, 3, 4, and Echo Staff 4. John tried his hand in student government, being in the Student Council 2, Class Officer 4. He was an Elocutionist 1, 2, and a stalwart member of the Sodality. John's big ambition is to attend Arizona State University at Tempe, and his hobby is Bainbridge Island.

PHILIP KNOWLTON CLARK
Wichita, Kansas

Among the many who came down the hill from St. Joe's to Prep four years ago was Phil Clark, and Prep has ever been glad he came. In his freshman year he played frosh football and basketball, and joined the Sodality for the next four years. As a Sophomore he made a varsity football letter, joined the Letterman's Club, and in the spring was one of the lucky ten who went to the Prom. In his junior and senior years he played varsity football and basketball, was elected a class officer, and joined the Panther Club.

JOHN PEYTON CONDON
Spokane, Washington

John comes to us from St. Catherine's Grade School in the North end. A member of the Sodality for all of his four years, he was also a charter member of the Pep Club, and he became a Harlequin for his stage work in "Harvey." His ambition is to win the Kentucky Derby, and his hobbies are horses, photography, and cars. He has a favorite saying, "Oh you hot-rod, you." He was the photographer for the Echo staff in his senior year and he's really an expert in this line.

THOMAS HENRY CHAN
Elbow Lake, Minnesota

Tom came to Prep as a freshman after graduating from St. Pat's. In his freshman year he went out for athletics in a big way, but soon decided to devote more time to "scholastic endeavors" and to the tan '39 Chev., that is his pride and joy. Tom swears that as soon as he finishes driving the Jesuits crazy he will go back to Minnesota and take up farming. His record includes: Cub Basketball, Frosh Football, Track 1, Sodality 1, 2, 3, and Harlequins, 4.

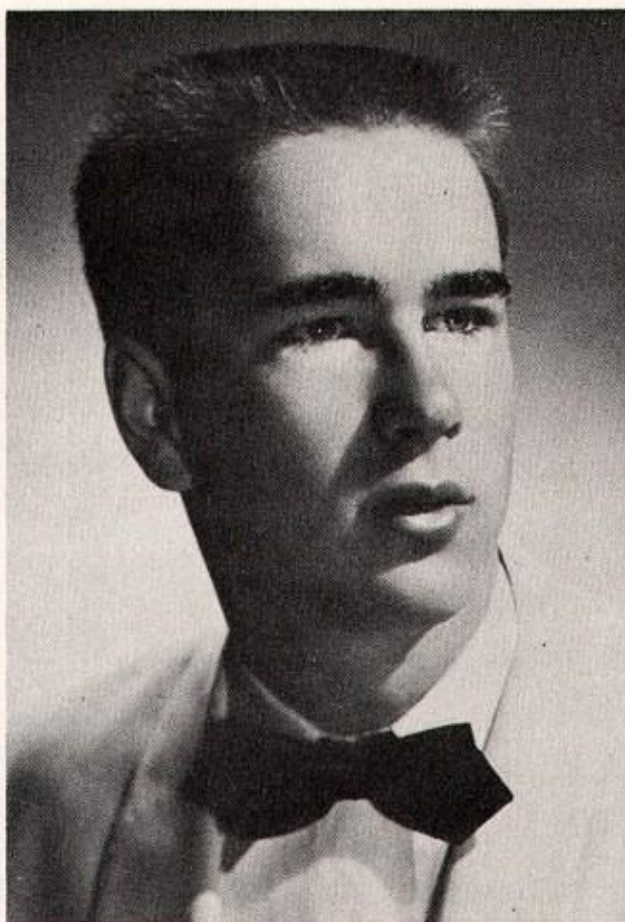

JOHN PATRICK COOK
Wolf Point, Montana

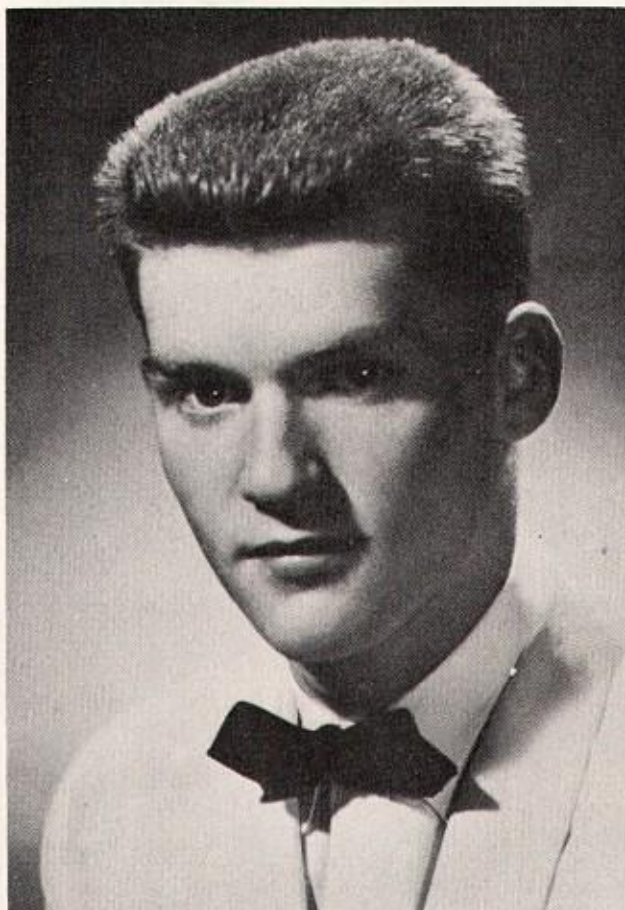

Pat entered Prep as a freshman from Bryant Public School in Seattle and proceeded to be a quiet, unnoticed Prepster. But this didn't last very long. A Sodality member for three years, Pat, in his junior year, turned his talents to the "wicked stage." He was seen in: "Mist Before the Periscope," "Harvey," "Julius Caesar," and "Spreading the News," as well as being one of Mr. Hurley's charges in the Debate Club. Pat has kept his school life enjoyable mainly through his envious hobby: "Running up and down the halls of Holy Names."

MICHAEL EVANS DENNEHYSeattle, Washington

Upon entering Prep as a frosh from St. Joseph's, Mike joined the select few who had the distinction of playing Cub football under the inimitable Mr. Murphy, S. J. Along with getting an education, he joined the Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4, student council 4, Panther Club 4, Pep Club President 4, Assistant editor of the PANTHER 3, 4 and was elected Sports editor of the ECHO. When he's not indulging in his hobby, sleeping, he's trying to fulfill his ambition which is to hear Haggarty tell the truth.

DOUGLAS CHARLES DOWNEY*San Francisco, California

"Dug" as he is known to his friends, first trod the sacred halls of Prep as a freshman, coming here straight from St. Anthony's. He stayed only for a short while however, and then decided something was lacking in the Prep curriculum. That something was women, so he journeyed over to Lincoln where he lingered for only half a quarter before returning to the school on the hill to fill out his high-school career. Here he made a record for himself and found many friends among the students. He will especially be remembered for the fine dramatic talent that he showed in two Harlequin productions.

VINCENT EUGENE FINAZZO*Seattle, Washington

Vince is one of the few seniors who graduated from St. Alphonsus' School in Ballard at the end of a grade school life. He was active in the Sodality in his freshman year. Although Vince has not taken part in a great number of extra-curricular activities, his fine personality and cheerful spirit have been a great boost to our class during the past four years. After graduating he plans to study forestry and continue his two favorite hobbies, cars and girls. Vince would also like to make a new fad out of his favorite saying, "Ho-ho, that's rich."

RONALD EDWIN FARRELL*Portland, Oregon

"Big Red" is a graduate of Marymount Grade School. He entered Prep as a freshman with the rest of us in 1948. He played Football 1, 2, 3, 4, earning his letter in his last two years. He was elected to the Panther Club 3, 4, and was a member of the Prom Committee. His ambition is to move to Bellingham. He has a hobby which he tries to practice all the time, which is, as he puts it, "Tormenting Mr. Pausen," and his favorite saying is, "D--- this typewriter!"

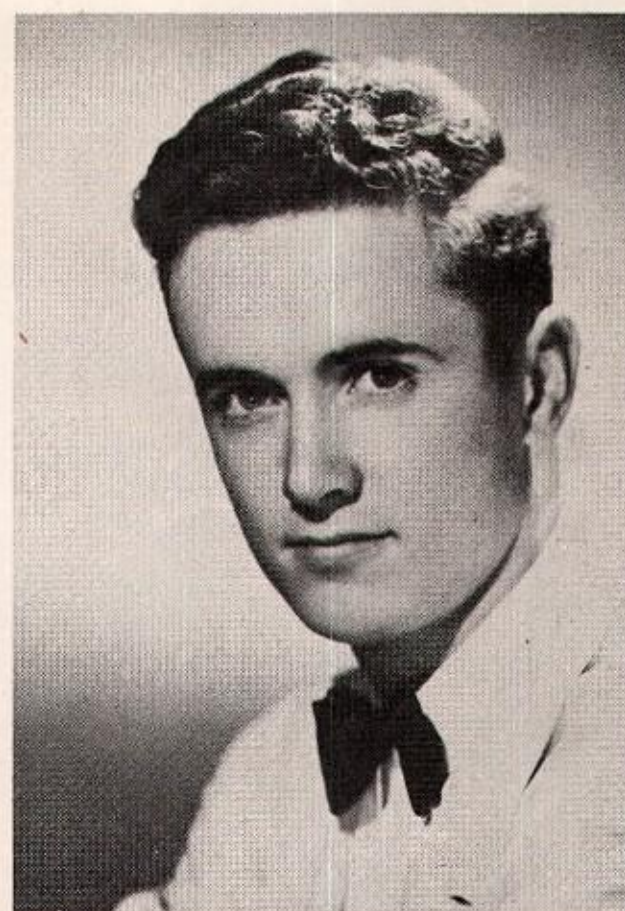

PETER JULIUS GALANDO

Seattle, Washington

Pete Galando comes to us from St. Mary's. A home town boy, his hobby is a weird one, anything that moves. His ambition, which is to have the best rod in town, is fairly well fulfilled with his present "beast." Whenever Pete isn't tinkering around with lowering desks in study hall, he can be heard telling anyone and everyone, "I don't know and I really don't give a rap if I find out." Mr. Robinson's Economics class will lose a great "star" when Pete leaves.

JOHN HAROLD GEORGE

Olympia, Washington

Jack came to Prep from Blessed Sacrament. He has been very active at Prep, turning out for basketball ever since he was a sophomore, being on the Varsity as a senior. He played Varsity baseball all of his four years at Prep, and is one of two four-year lettermen here at school. He also has been on the Student Council for four years, representing his classes as President 1, 2, 3, and as Letterman Club president as a senior. He wants to have "A Life in Minneapolis," and his favorite saying is "Holy Muckieye!"

JAMES PATRICK FOLEY

Seattle, Washington

Blessed Sacrament lost a real "great guy" when Jim came to Prep. Running the newsstand at the Washington State Ferry Lines Dock has occupied all of Jim's time these four years. The daily struggle of the hot-rodders between Jim and Baldwin, just started this year, has been slightly in Foley's favor, contrary to public opinion. The idea is to see who can leave home the latest and still get to school on time. He wants "to make money doing nothing," and to pursue his hobby which is merely "cars."

CONNELL LOUIS GIACOMINI

Kingfisher, Oklahoma

This quiet, unassuming gentleman is one of the bravest men in the country. After winning a scholarship to Prep from St. Joe's he became a regular whistle-toter for the intramural league. Connie is a four-year man in the Sodality, too. He's trying to promote a changing of the school colors to chartreuse and shocking-pink. He claims the original hobby of collecting WOMBATS. They're like pink elephants, I think. One of his favorite sayings is, "Hit the road, ya Bum!"

ROBERT GRANT GUINASSO

Seattle, Washington

Bob came to Prep as a freshman in '48 from Mount Virgin Grade School. He immediately made good in frosh baseball and basketball and in soph-frosh baseball. He was vice-president of his class during his sophomore year and has been a staunch member of the Sodality for all four years. Bob is a genial, good natured guy who likes nothing better than to go fishing. His big ambition is to go into business for himself, and we predict right now that he can't miss.

JACK LEO GUISE

Seattle, Washington

Jack is an alumnus of that "Prep" for Prep, St. Joe's, coming to Prep directly from there as a freshman. Jack is well known and liked around school (He was Sgt.-at-arms of 2B) and he is always for school activities. When not in school or out with the boys, Jack spends his time in Port Orchard. Jack's ambition is to follow the family tradition and some day own the Lakeview Tavern and offer a free draw to all Prep grads.

JAMES DOUGLAS HALEY

Seattle, Washington

Jim graduated from St. Joe's on the hill and came to Prep in '48. He was a member of the Sodality for all four of those years, and is one of the few men who can claim the distinction of being elected prefect of his Sodality for each of four consecutive years. His hobby is Greek, and his ambition, though not yet fulfilled, is "to own a real car." Week ends will often find him bending pretzles (?) with Lockett in front of the fireplace.

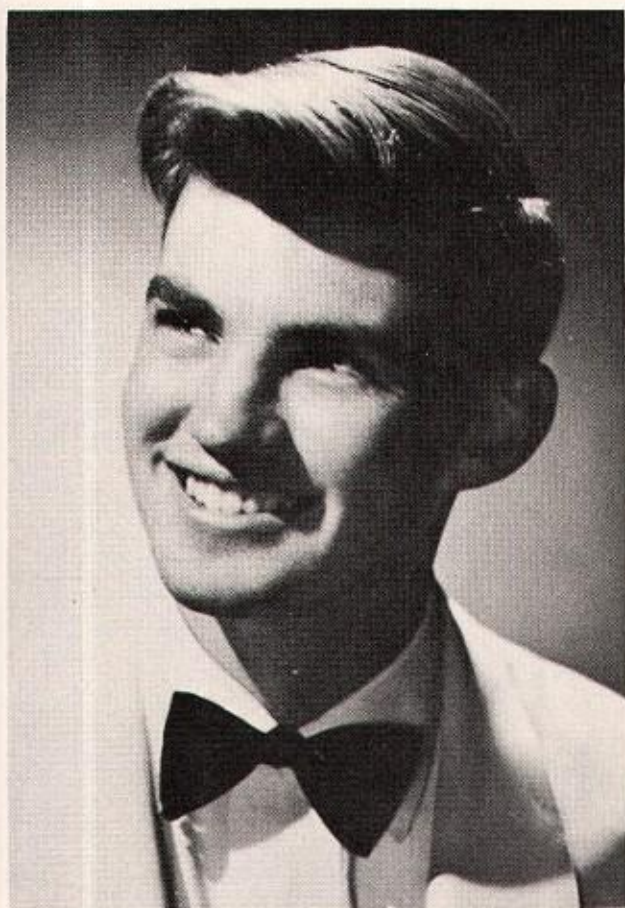

JOHN MARK HAGGARTY

Seattle, Washington

Jack was born in Seattle and graduated from St. James's in Los Angeles, but he didn't get to Prep until last year. He had previously spent two years at Loyola High School in Los Angeles. Although Father McDonnell claims he's "mouthy" and Father Zelenak says he's an "extrovert" he's a "real likeable cuss," as the saying goes. All he wants to do is "drown in a vat of water (?)." Jack can always be heard saying, "Is it ALL hers?"

GARTH JOHN HOULIHAN

Seattle, Washington

Among those who hopped the stage one early September morning in 1948, and headed out of the West Seattle wilderness and Holy Rosary to Seattle Prep, was Garth Houlihan, better known to all as "Houlie." In his first year "Houlie" played Cub football, basketball, and baseball. He was elected class officer and was in the Elocution contest. The next three years were well filled; Garth played Soph-Frosh baseball, "B" squad basketball 2, 3, joined the PANTHER Club, and Pep Club, joined the Sodality 4, and was elected class officer 4.

DONALD ISHAM, JR.

Seattle, Washington

Don graduated from Seattle's Lowell Grade School and journeyed down south for a year at Hill Military Academy in Portland, Oregon. Then he saw the light and returned to good old Seattle and Prep. After Don gets sprung (or graduates, pardon me!) he plans to nose his big Cadillac down to San Francisco and get a job greasing street-car tracks. Don's hobby is resting but if he should wake up don't be surprised if he looks up at you and says, "Pardon me, but is that your nose or are you eating a banana?"

MICHAEL MELLAR HOLMES

Seattle, Washington

After graduating from St. Joseph's, Mike came to Adelpia Hall like his famous brother before him. But there the resemblance ended. Trying his hand at frosh football and basketball, Mike suffered from recurrent plague of breaking bones. He then settled for a less strenuous life as Athletic Director of 3-A, Sports editor of the PANTHER, and a vital cog in the Publicity Committee. After junking a green Ford in his Junior year, Mike bought a blue Mercury in which he is currently vieing with Dick Waters for "the Dig King Title of all gutless cars."

DANIEL JOSEPH KAISER

Seattle, Washington

Dan was born in Seattle and entered Prep in '48 from St. Edward's. Better known as a "Brain," Dan has had an almost four-point average during his four years at Prep. He has devoted four years to the Sodality, PANTHER staff 3, 4, and ECHO staff 4. He wishes he could understand people, especially himself. His favorite word is "Shoot" and he likes to sleep (in class) but this hasn't affected his grades, and he's salutatorian of the class to prove it.

FRANCIS MERAL KALBERER

Portland, Oregon

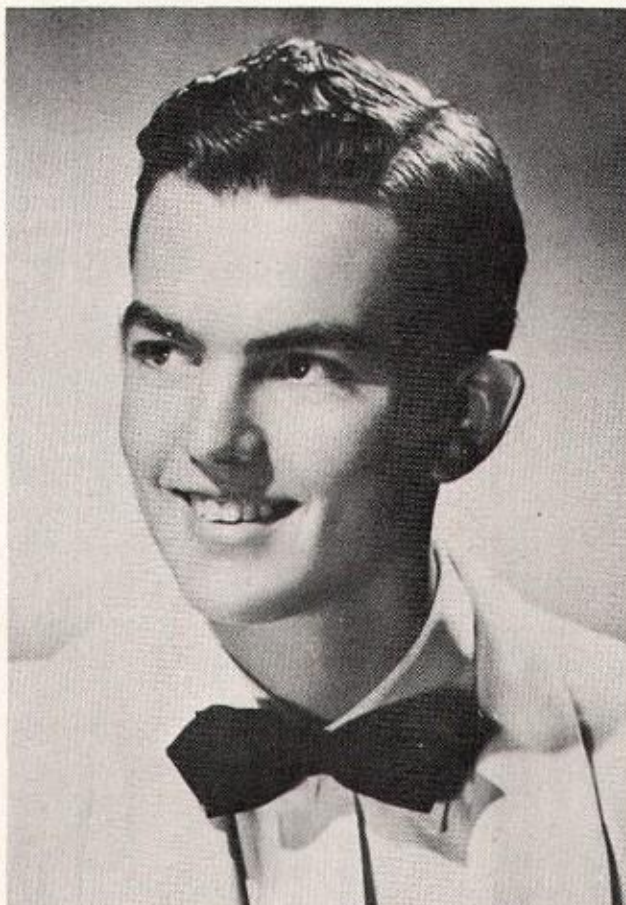

Frank is a graduate of the north end's Blessed Sacrament. In '48 he hopped across the lake to become a member of Adelpia, class of '52. As a junior, he caught the eye of Father Lanphier and was immediately given the job of stage manager of all the Harlequin productions. But this year his true talent was discovered and he was chosen for a lead in "Spreading the News," and for the part of Caesar in the Harlequin's spring production, "Julius Caesar." "Abie" Kalberer's biggest ambition could make him a fortune every week; he wants to install a taxi meter in his Chev. A summary of his activities: Harlequins 3, 4, Sodality 3, 4.

JOHN BRYAN KELLEHER

Seattle, Washington

John entered the portals of Prep from St. Margaret's Grade School in 1948. Being friendly and personable he is liked by all. As a freshman he played frosh baseball and entered the Prep Sodality, in which he has been an active member these past four years. He was also an outstanding member of the Track team in his senior year. His favorite saying is, "Where's the percentage?" Add to all this a hobby of "doing absolutely nothing," and you have a true picture of Jack.

GERALD MICHAEL KENNEY

Seattle, Washington

Gerald Michael Kenney entered Prep as a freshman in 1948, a product of Christ the King Grade school. Jerry is one of the best liked students around school and you can often hear him saying "That's great." Even though he lived far out in Edmonds, his activities were very impressive. These include: Baseball 1; Football 2, 3, 4, Varsity 4; Track 3, 4; Sodality 1, 2, 4; Pep Club 3; and Letterman's Club 3, 4. In his senior year he entered the Washington State Resources contest and was also appointed a West Point Alternate by Rep. Hugh B. Mitchell.

MICHAEL MORTIMER KELLIHER, JR.

Spokane, Washington

Mike, who is from Spokane, moved to Seattle and graduated from St. Joseph's Grade School. He played "B" squad football as a junior and he has also been a member of the Sodality since his freshman year. He's a Harlequin member for his part in "Julius Caesar" also. Mike's ambition is to own all the stock in Mobilgas Gas Stations, and his hobby is Gas Stations. His favorite saying is, "Oh shaving soap."

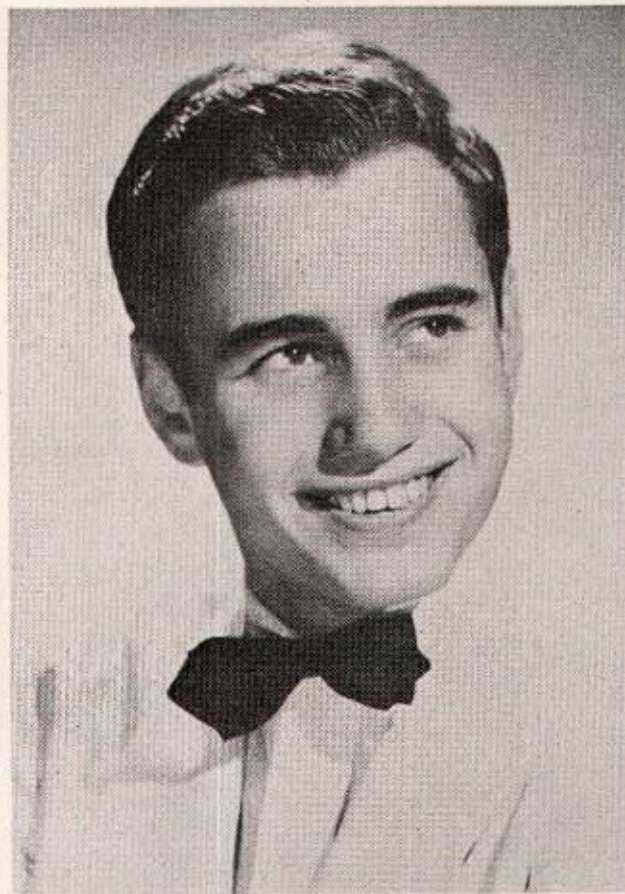

STEPHEN REGNER LA RIVIERE

Oakland, California

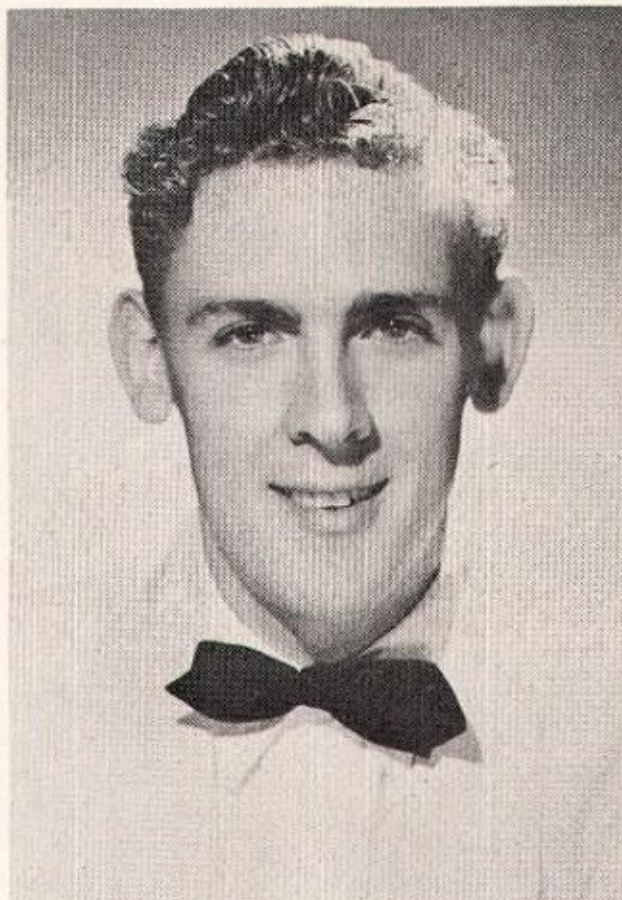

Steve came here from Blessed Sacrament in the fall of '48. He played Football 1, 3, Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity 3, 4, and Baseball 2. He was a Class Officer 1, 2, 3, 4, and a member of the Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4. Steve was a letterman in both his junior and senior years and a PANTHER Club member 3, 4. He was one of the ten members of the Prom committee last year and is an all-around busy guy. His hobby is "Girls, and more of 'em!" and he wants to own a "profitable distillery." His favorite saying is, "I'm wishing."

ROBERT OSCAR KUSE

Lincoln, Nebraska

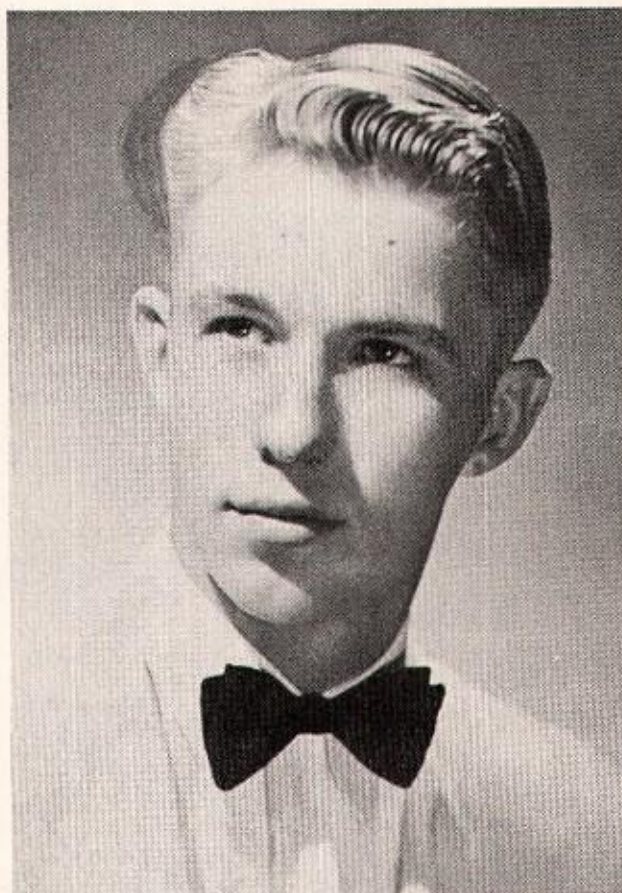

When Bob first came to Prep from St. Joe's his height made him look more like a visitor than a member of the student body. However, like all good small men, including Johnny O'Brien, he played on the Cubs basketball team as a freshman and scored two points on an amazing one-handed lay in. He is one of the charter members of the Pep Club. He claims fishing as a hobby and he's really a good "angler." When asked a question he's very likely to answer with his now famous, "Huh?"

ROBERT HAROLD LARSEN

Seattle, Washington

Another of the famous members of that foreign community of West Seattle is Bob Larsen. Towards the end of a brilliant career at Holy Rosary Grade School, "away out West," Bob got the light and enrolled for four happy (?) years at the Preparatory. He has changed quite a bit since then and is now engaged in the hobby of "listening to Farrell" as he puts it. Bob, a member of the Sodality in his last two years at school, plans "to get out of high school and stay out of the army."

VANCE LE ROY LAYTON

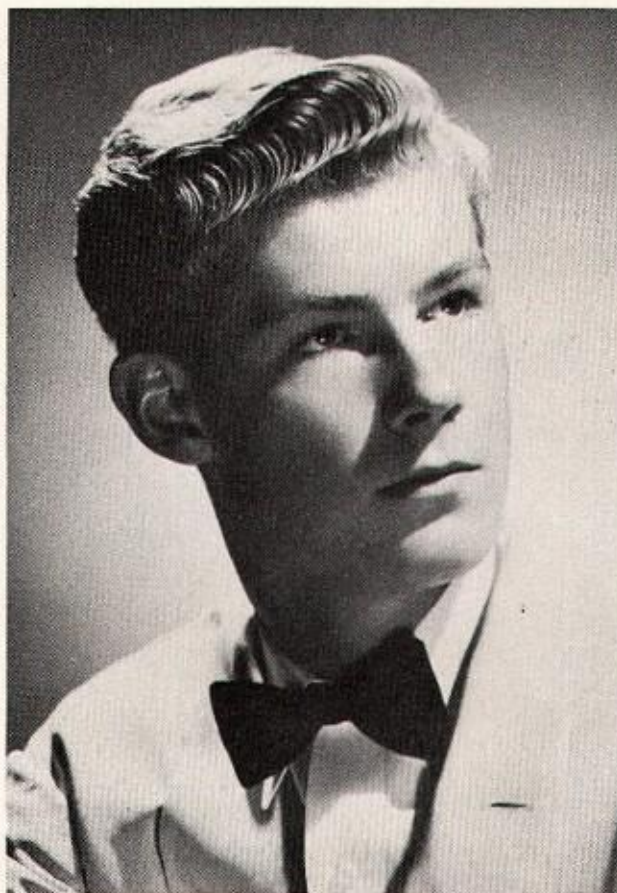

Long Beach, California

Vance was born in Long Beach and moved to Seattle, where he graduated from St. Catherine's Grade School. Vance was a member of the Sodality in his sophomore year, and he played varsity basketball in his senior year. Vance's ambition is to be an aeronautical engineer. His favorite hobby is women, which is certainly borne out by the way he acts sometimes. Vance's favorite saying is, "Where there's a will, there's a way."

FRANCIS JOSEPH LEIBLY, JR.

Seattle, Washington

Frank transferred to Prep as a sophomore from St. Martin's. Tall and lean, Frank looks like an outdoorsman, and you can notice the dreamy look in his eyes as he gazes down at the sailboats on Portage Bay on those sunny spring days. He is a boating and fishing enthusiast and has a passion for skiing, so his ambitions lay in the direction of a hermitage at Aspen or a life on sunny Florida beaches. Frank has been a strong Sodalist for all the three years he has spent at Prep.

CARLO ETTRO LEONETTI

Seattle, Washington

Carlo came to Prep in '48 from St. Mary's. He was a Sodalist for four years. "Turk" also turned his attention to sports and his record in that line is impressive. Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity 4, Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity 3, 4, Letterman's Club 3, 4. He was elected a class officer as a freshman and again as a junior. His hobby of "Being a good boy," and his favorite saying, "Nothing," undoubtedly were a great help in putting him well toward the top of his class. "Turk" seems to be the "strong, silent, type" and this will probably be an aid in his ambition, "To be a doctor."

JOSEPH ADOLPHUS LOWMAN

Seattle, Washington

"I want to own 200 head of Black Angus." For anyone who can figure this out, this is the ambition of one Joseph Lowman. Joe, along with a few others came to Prep from St. Catherine's school in the year of '49 to remain for four years. During his four year adventure, he engaged in some of the many activities offered at Prep. In his freshman year, he was a member of the Sodality which kept his interest for two more years. He also turned out for the Harlequin Club, and was taken in in his senior year. We hope he fulfills his ambition and will start supplying the Jesuits with beef!

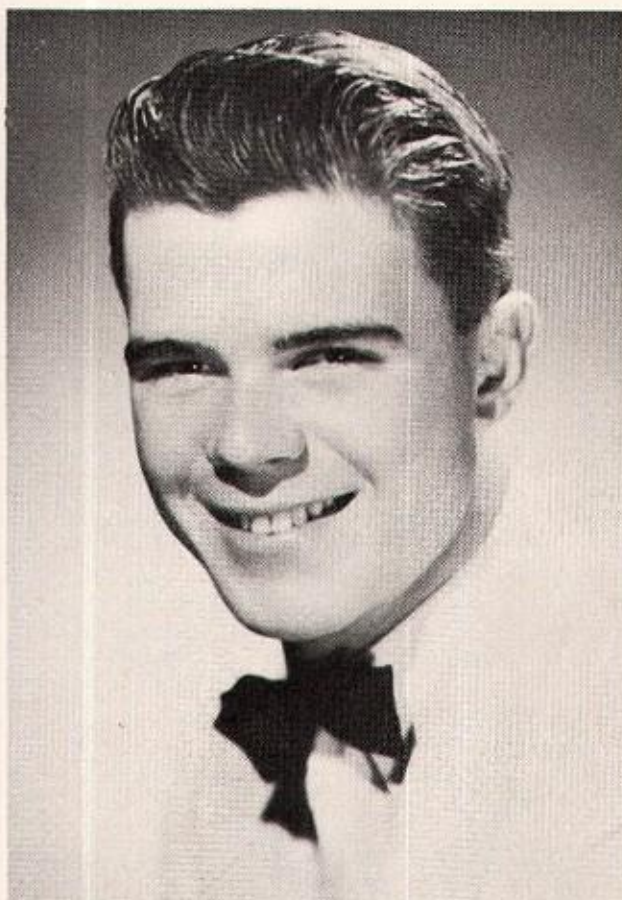

JAMES FREDERICK LOCKETT

Seattle, Washington

"Jay" came to Prep from North Kitsap for his freshman year but before long he moved south to Montgomery, Alabama, returning to Prep again for his sophomore year. Any night you may find our hero at home working on his hobby, bending pretzles by firelight. Jay played Football 1, 3, was in the Sodality 3, 4, Pep Club 4, and a member of the PANTHER staff. To find him, just trace the tired voice which says over and over, "Shut up, Scordon!"

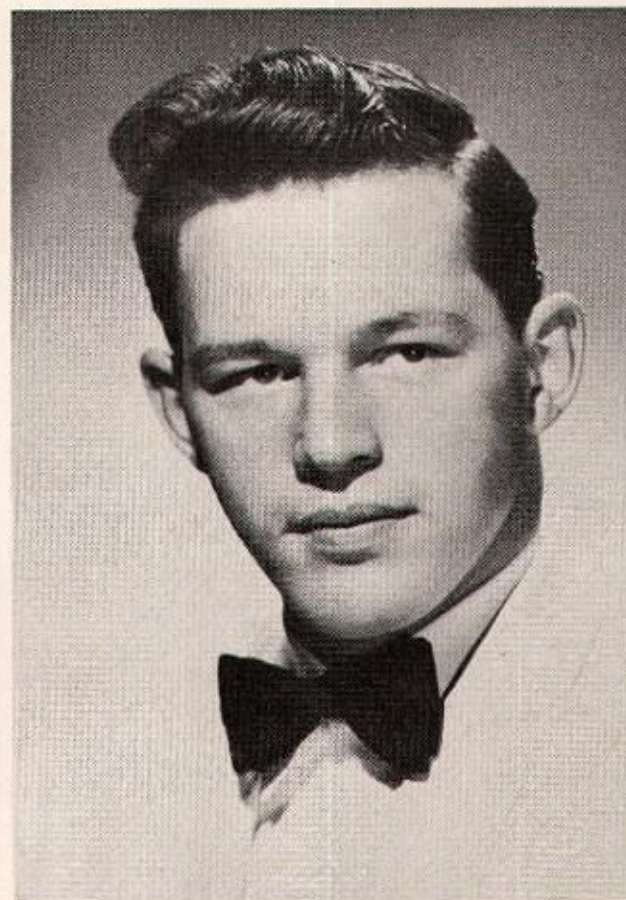

JOHN PATRICK MEAGHER

Seattle, Washington

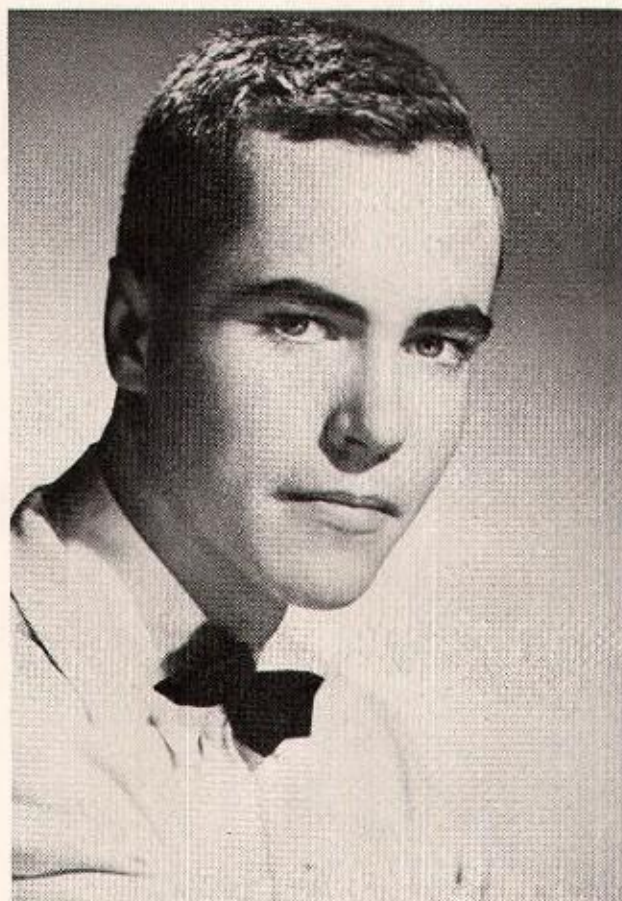

Pat was born in Seattle and came to Prep as a freshman from Meany Jr. High with the ambition of living for a few years. He was received into the Harlequins for his work in "Mist Before the Periscope," and "The Bishop Misbehaves." He was also circulation manager of the PANTHER and a reporter for the ECHO. He was an active member in Mr. Gillingham's Radio Club in his junior year. Pat is interested in electronics, and he can often be seen hanging around up at St. Nick's.

FREDERICK ALLAN LYONS

Spokane, Washington

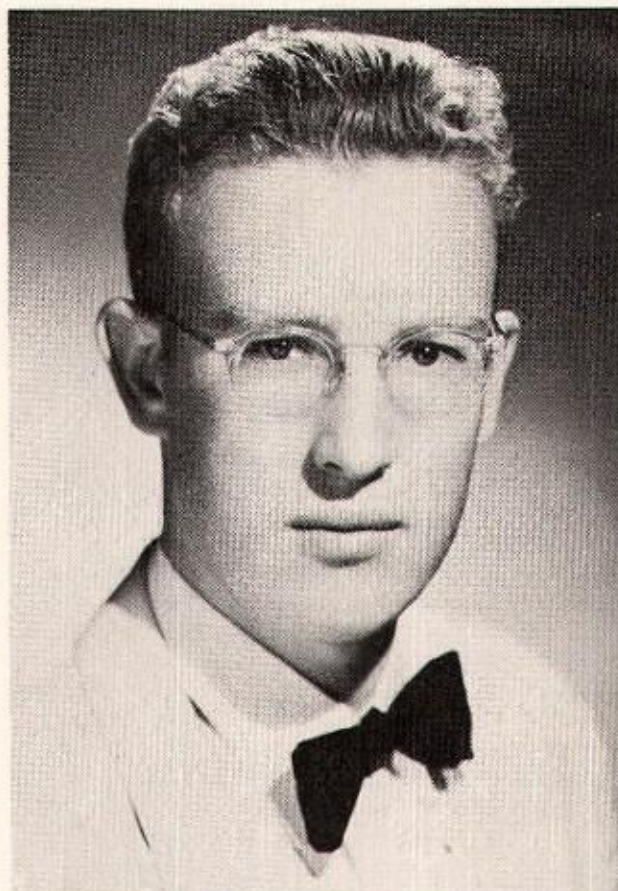

Frederick Allan Lyons was another of those lovable characters from St. Joe's Grade School. His witty jokes plus his high ability as a student have made him one of the more popular students at Prep. He is also known as a European adventurer having traveled there during February 1951. When he is not tearing around in his new Old's, he is participating in activities which include: Football 1, 2, and 4, Varsity 4; Letterman's Club 4, and Sodality 4. His ambition is to have a controlling interest in General Motors.

CHRISTIAN XAVIER MELGARD

Seattle, Washington

"Avvy" is a graduate of Marymount Grade School in Tacoma. Chris has been very active in sports at Prep. He has been a member of the Track team since he was a freshman and played a year of freshman football before graduating to three years in the starting right tackle position on Prep's football teams. He was Class President as a freshman and was Secretary-Treasurer of his Sophomore class. Chris was a member of the Prom Committee, a four-year letterman, and a Harlequin. His favorite saying is, "Never say die, do it."

EUGENE RAYEIL MILLER

Mabton, Washington

Gene is a native of that thriving community of Mabton, Washington. Upon his graduation from St. Edward's Grade School, here in town, he immediately enrolled at Holy Redeemer College Seminary where he spent three years of study. Tiring of minor seminary life he came to Prep to finish high school, where he joined the Marian Committee of the Sodality of Our Lady. Gene is a well-liked kid who really gets a kick out of Mr. Goodwin's Algebra class. He likes to read and he figures on continuing his studies and becoming a priest.

FRANCIS JOHN MINGUS

Polson, Montana

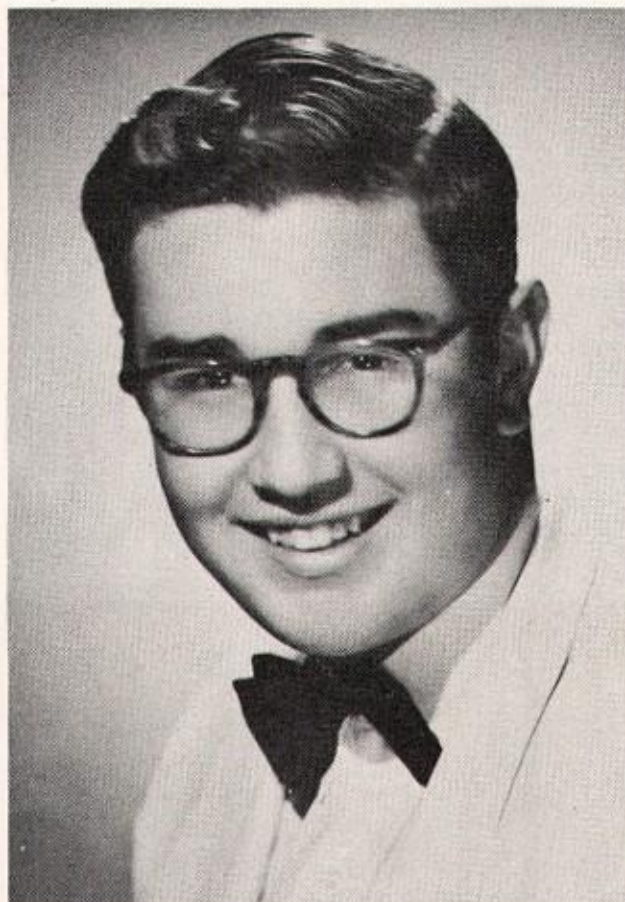

John started his high school career the right way by coming directly to Prep from St. Theresa's grade school. He started his active term at Prep by turning out for Froth football and basketball. Since then, he has participated in many activities around the school, including PANTHER Staff 2, 3, 4; Pep Club 3, 4; Echo Staff 4; Football, Varsity 4, B-Squad 2; Varsity Track 1, 2, 3, 4; and Letterman Club 3, 4. His hobby is sparring with Winn Brindle in the locker room, and after his work on the PANTHER, John still aspires to be a newspaper man. With his energy, it doesn't take a genius to foretell success.

CHARLES ROBERT MOONEY

Los Angeles, California

After doing his time up at St. Joe's, "Clyde" took the long walk to Prep and has been here since, except for a few trips to Spokane with Baldwin to see B. J. and Millie. He is an ambitious sort of fellow, being in the Sodality for four years. He is one of the three members of the Publicity Committee. Bob, who someday wants to become a part owner of B & H, can practically always be heard saying "Anybody seen Ma Wa lately?"

GERALD PATRICK MURPHY

Havre, Montana

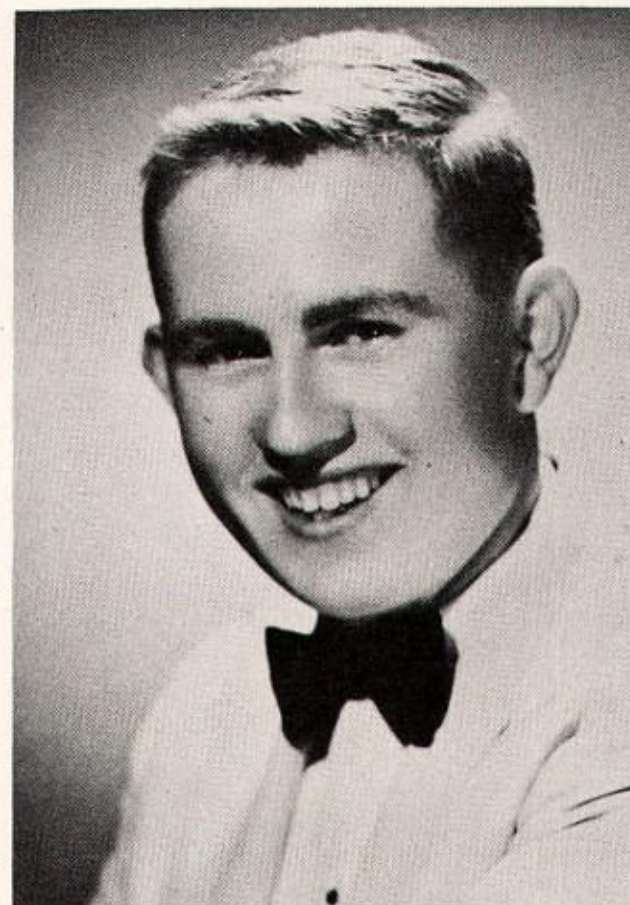

"Murph" came to Prep in '49 from St. Pat's. He has been A. S. S. P. President this year, and Sec. Treas. last year. He was on Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Officer 1, 2, 3; Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4; Debate 1, 2, 3, 4; PANTHER Club 3, 4; Prom Committee Chairman 3; PANTHER Sports Editor 2; Echo Ass't. Sports Editor 4; S. U. Impromptu and debate; Gonzaga debates, Hearst oratory finals, Elocution 2, 3; and C. P. S. debates. He wants to see Haggarty get a job, and he's always saying (?) "Where's the iron Panther?"

JAMES LEE MOYER

Portland, Oregon

"Jim" entered Prep as a frosh from Holy Rosary. He immediately showed an interest in sports, playing football on the frosh and then on the B-squad as a sophomore. Jim is most notable for the flashy cars he drives—his new Studebaker being a source of envy to many Prepsters. Jim is an ardent sportsman—spending much time pursuing wary fish and game. He is an excellent fisherman so it is with tongue-in-cheek that he says his ambition is to catch a legal sized trout.

JAMES JOSEPH McGRATH

Glasgow, Montana

"Senator" McGrath joined the ranks at Miller Street as a frosh from St. Catherine's and before long had carved a niche for himself in Elocution 1, 2, 3; Harlequins 3, 4; in the plays: "Mist Before the Periscope," "Harvey," "Spreading the News," and "Julius Caesar," as well as helping Holy Names out in a few of their productions; Debate 3, 4, and Sodality 4. During the spring Jim may be found in the vicinity of the office proposing the annual class picnic. Jim's annual noon-time habit is raiding the hill.

MATTHEW RAPHAEL McKAY

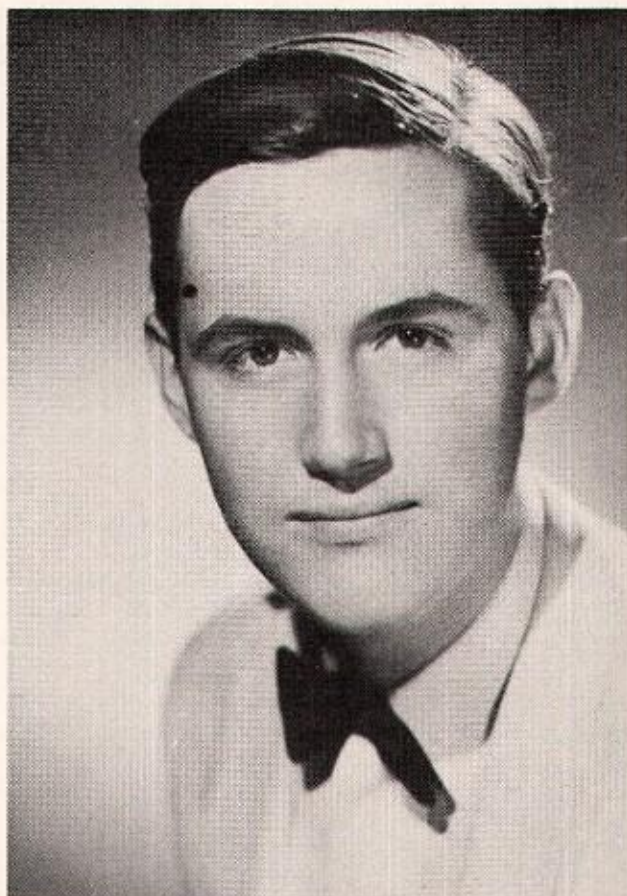

Seattle, Washington

Matt was born here in town and graduated from St. James Grade School. Matt went to that other school in Seattle, O'Dea, for two years before coming to Prep for his last two seasons of high school. McKay has been quite active in the Sodality ever since he came to Prep in 1950. Matt's ambition after he gets out of school is to be the first man to ever reach the moon, and his hobby, which he can always be seen chasing, is blondes. His favorite saying is "Where is she?"

MICHAEL CHARLES MURPHY

Seattle, Washington

Obtaining an impressive record of activities at Prep this red-headed Irishman came to Adelpia from St. Joseph's Grade School. Among his many achievements are "B" squad basketball in his sophomore and junior years, class officer for all four years of his high-school career and an enthusiastic member of the Student Council. He was also an active member of the Panther Club and Prom Committee. His ambition is "to go to Jack Guise's place across the Sound," and his favorite saying is "that's the way the old ball bounces."

DANIEL BARTON McMULLEN

Seattle, Washington

"Big Moose" graduated from St. Margaret's Parochial School over Magnolia way. He participated in track and skiing all four years, making his track letter in his junior and senior years. He joined the Lettermen's Club as a junior, after Track season. Dan always keeps in tip-top shape by running up and down the boulevard at noon-time. His many hobbies include skiing, fishing, photography, and hiking. He has a worthy ambition to live a good life, and he's always saying, "Next time I'll . . ."

RALPH XAVIER McMULLEN

Winslow, Washington

Ralph, or "Baby Moose," as he is better known, comes to us from Christ the King Grade School. During his freshman year, he acted as manager for the frosh football team and again as a sophomore he again donned the managerial coat as master of the "B" squad's football properties. Mac's ambition is to grow a beard and he also likes to disassemble typewriters. His favorite saying is one which he hears quite often from Mr. Robinson, "McMullen, get out of here!"

RONALD JOHN McMULLEN

Seattle, Washington

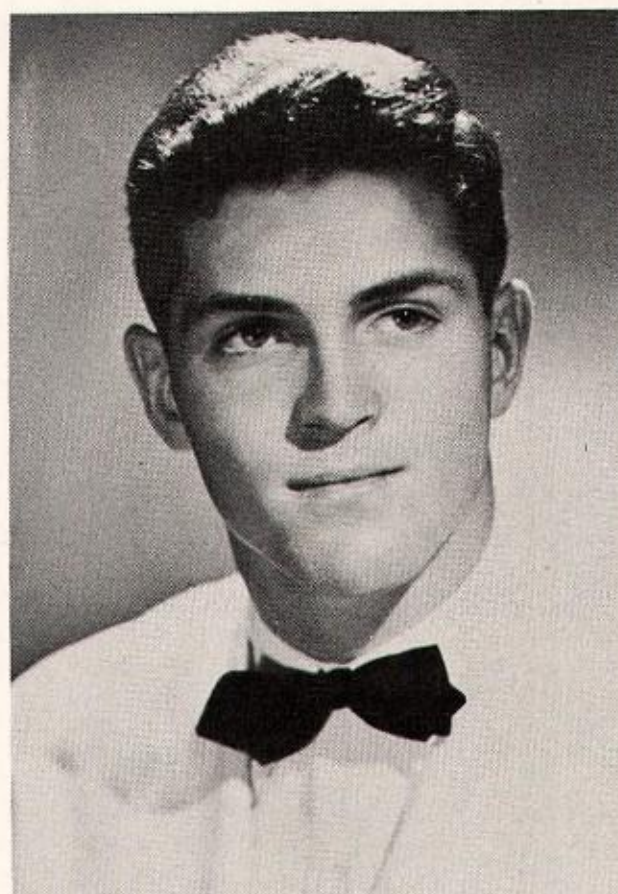

"Little Moose" came to Prep from St. Margaret's. Sports claimed his attention early in his career and he devoted a large amount of his time to them. He played Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity 4, Track 1, 2, 3, 4, Ski Team 1, 2, 3, 4, Varsity 3, 4, and he was a member of the Letterman's Club as a senior. It was the skiing to which he devoted most of his time for it is also his hobby, and it must be the cause of his ambition, "To move the mountains to Seattle."

JOSEPH JAMES QUINN

Seattle, Washington

Joe is a four-year Sodalist, and was a member of the Student Council, being elected to serve as Vice-President in his senior year. He was on the Prom committee 3, and in the Panther Club 3, 4. He has been Class President as a freshman and as a senior, and Vice-President his other two years. Joe played Varsity ball for three years on the Football, Baseball and Basketball teams, and was elected Captain of the 1951 Football squad. He earned his letter as a sophomore and was elected Vice-President of the Letterman's Club in his senior year.

KENNETH EDWARD NYBERG

Gary, Indiana

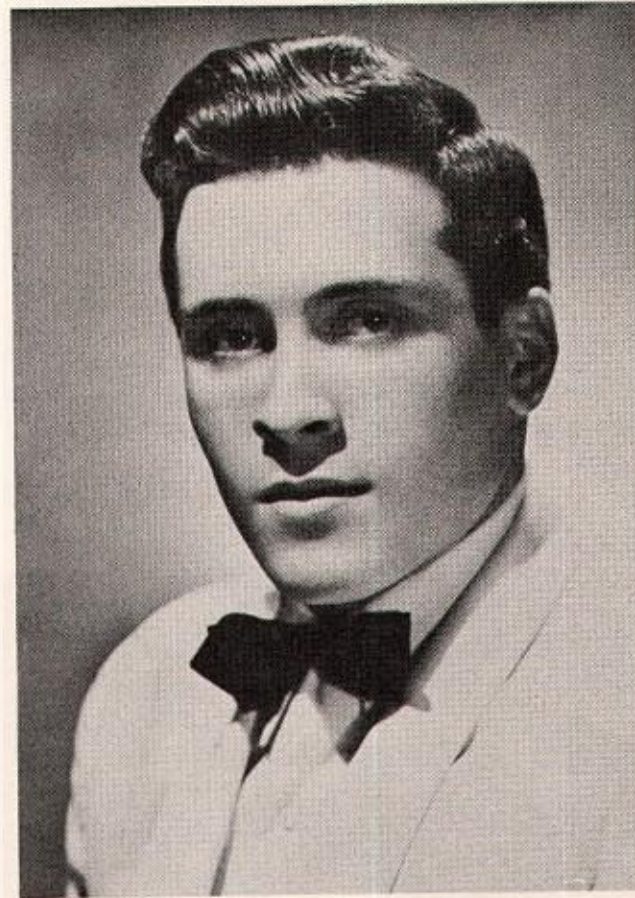

Kenny came to Prep in 1948 from St. Benedict's. He immediately set out to make a fine record for himself as a speaker, and has "brought home the bacon" many times: 1st in extemp. C. P. S., 2nd, extemp. Gonzaga, 1st impromptu Gonzaga, 2nd S. U. Debate, but with all this he just doesn't have time to have an ambition. The rest of his record is also impressive: Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4, Class Officer 3, 4, Panther Club 3, 4, Panther Club President 4, Student Council 4, PANTHER staff 1, 2, 3, Cheerleader 2, Echo Business Manager 4, and Pep Club 3, 4.

FRANCIS JOSEPH RAYMAKER

Seattle, Washington

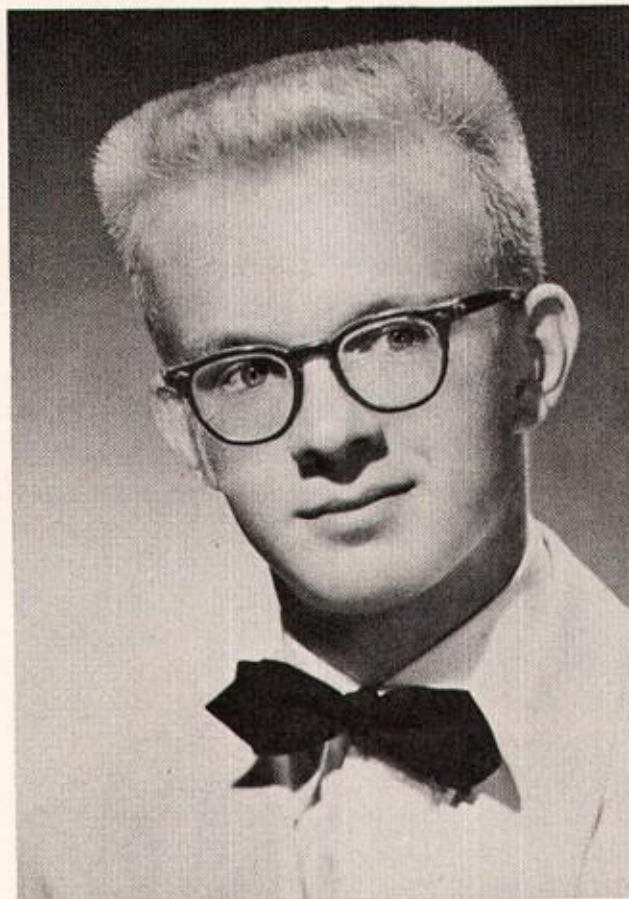

"Joe" graduated from St. Joseph's then entered Prep in the fall of '48 as a freshman. He became a member of the Harlequin Club 4, for his work as Costume manager of "The Bishop Misbehaves." Joe was also in the Pep Club 3, 4, PANTHER Staff 2, Associate Editor 3, and Echo Staff 4. Joe was an active Sodalist for four years and was on the Track Squad 2. His ambition is to get married, while his favorite pastime is singing "When you say I beg your pardon. . . ."

RALPH RONALD RAFANELLI

Seattle, Washington

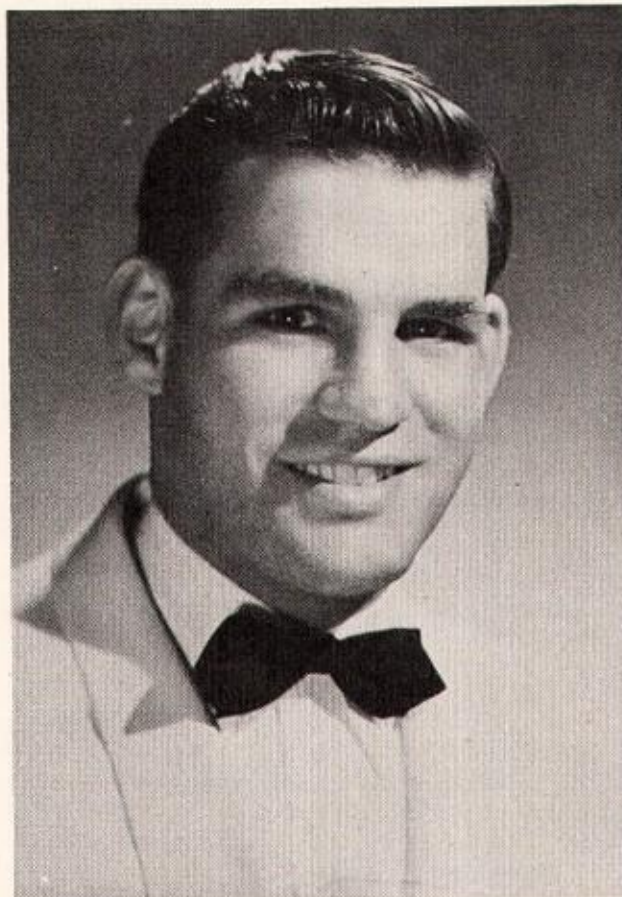

Ralph Rafanelli, another one of those "West Seattle Boys," entered the Halls of Prep after graduating from Holy Rosary Grade School. He began fulfilling his ambition "To make West Seattle Famous," by adding a touch of witticism and spirit to the classes. When he was not corrupting city officials in order to achieve his ambition to become mayor of West Seattle, he participated in activities which include: Baseball 1, 2; Basketball 1; and Sodality 4. In his senior year he was honored by an appointment to West Point by Representative Hugh B. Mitchell.

MARCUS MURRAY RITTER

Seattle, Washington

"Fritz" came to Prep from St. Benedict's. The Harlequins claimed most of his attention, being Assistant Stage Manager for "Harvey" and he also did a fine job as "Frenchy" in "The Bishop Misbehaves." Fritz is never in a hurry and he lists his hobby as "Conserving my energy." His favorite saying, "Better later than never," frequently resulted in his spending his time after school in "jug" with Father Weisenberg. Although he can talk a blue streak, he will probably never succeed in his ambition, "To win an argument with a Jesuit."

LOUIS ANTHONY ROSELLI

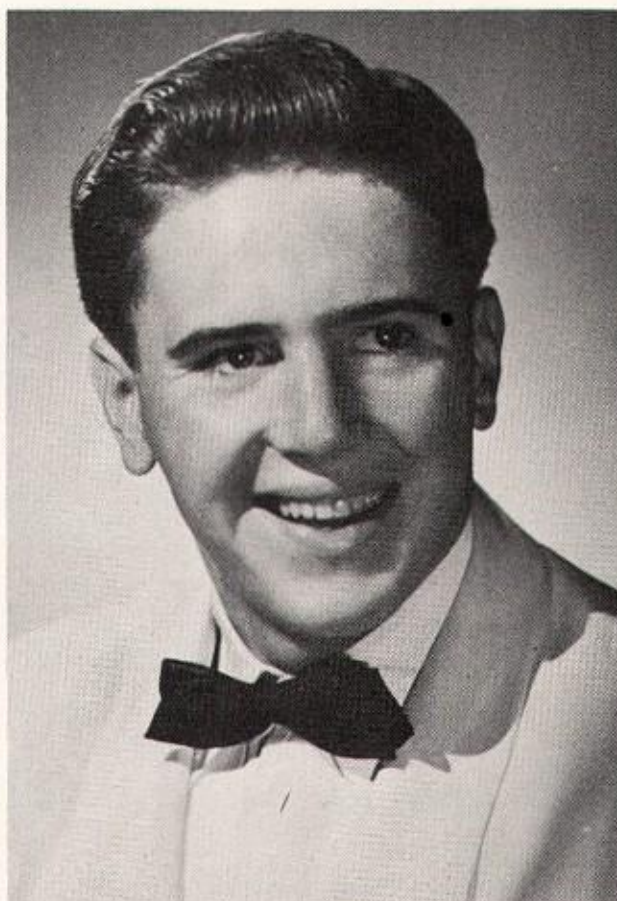

Massillon, Ohio

"Lou is one of the Rainier Valley athletes who have long been pacing Panther teams. He graduated from Mt. Virgine Grade school and then came to Prep. Lou's hobby is women; his favorite saying, "Prove it!" He played Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4, and belonged to the Lettermen's Club 2, 3, 4. His outstanding athletic achievement was being named to the All-Cross State football team as a senior. His ambition is to be as rich as Vanderbilt, and from the looks of his high grade point average, he may obtain it.

JOHN DENIS RYAN

Seattle, Washington

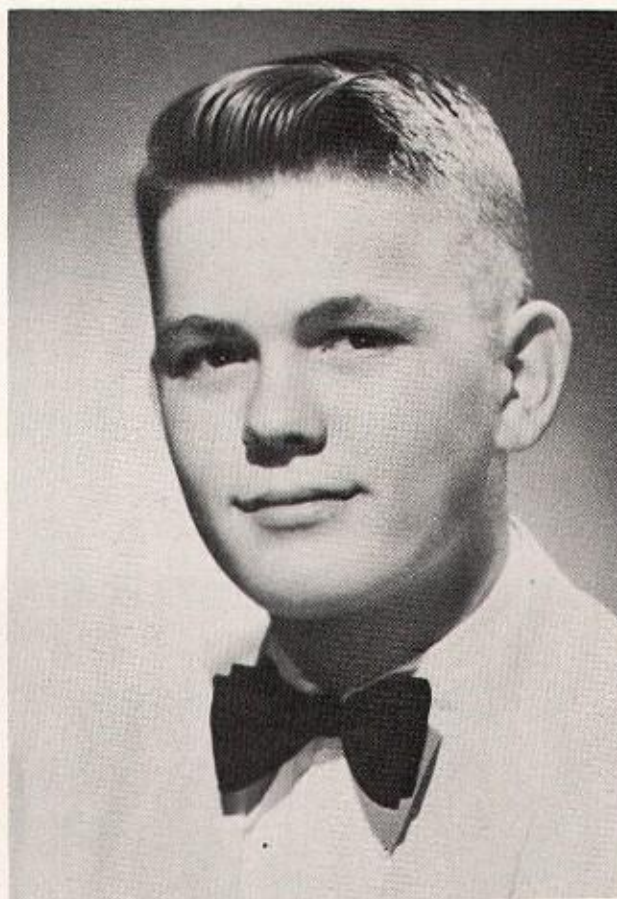

Johnny, like all good St. Joe's boys, came to Prep as a frosh and served his full four years. "Swiss" has been a very busy boy these last four years, being a member of the Ski Team four years. He's a four-year Sodalist, became a Harlequin as a junior, a charter member of the Pep Club, and a member of the PANTHER staff for four years. He was a Feature editor 3, 4, ECHO staff 4, and Honor Roll 1, 2, 3, 4. He played Football 1, 3, 4, Varsity 4, Letterman's Club 4, and a year of Track 4. With his determination "Swiss" will go far in any field he chooses.

WESLEY EDWARD SCHATZ

Seattle, Washington

If you should step into a Prep classroom and see, way back in the corner, a very peaceful face with an amiable grin on it, don't disturb! It's probably "Wes" Schatz. Now Wes has one big ambition, and that is to be able to lie down somewhere and sleep for two weeks without fear of being disturbed by those heartless men in black who constantly wake him up during school days. Two things only will arouse him, one is his only true love, a '39 "Chev," and the other, the prospect of a skiing expedition.

BENEDICT ARTHUR SCHWARTZ

Seattle, Washington

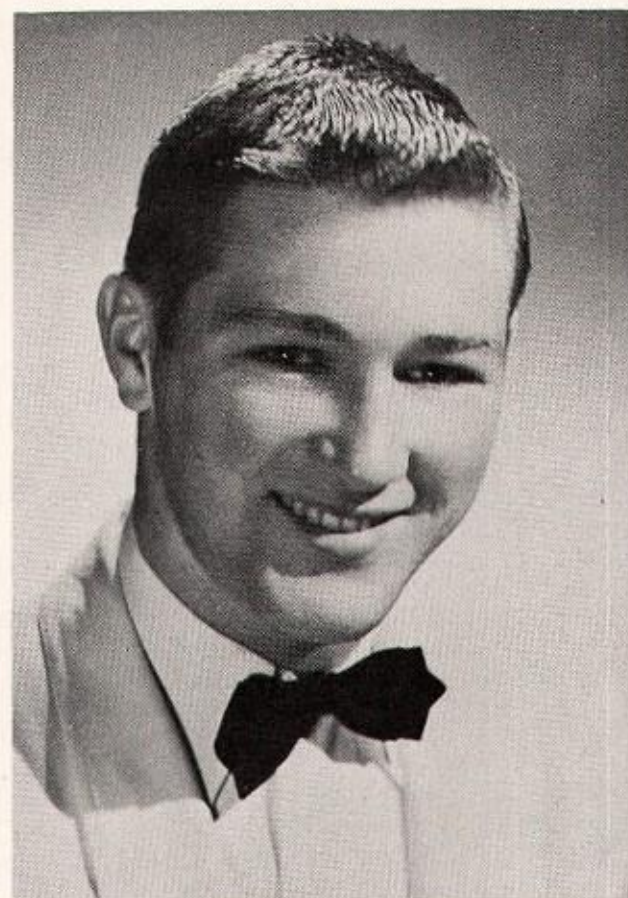

Ben joined the 109 freshmen four years ago from Duwamish Grade School, and he soon gained recognition as a bright young student and hardest kid in 1-A to borrow paper from. Since then Ben has reformed to the point where he even keeps a supply of pens handy for forgetful classmates. Four years at Prep has put ambition into Ben. He is bound and determined to make millions and then to build a new Prep so that young Catholic kids can go to a real school.

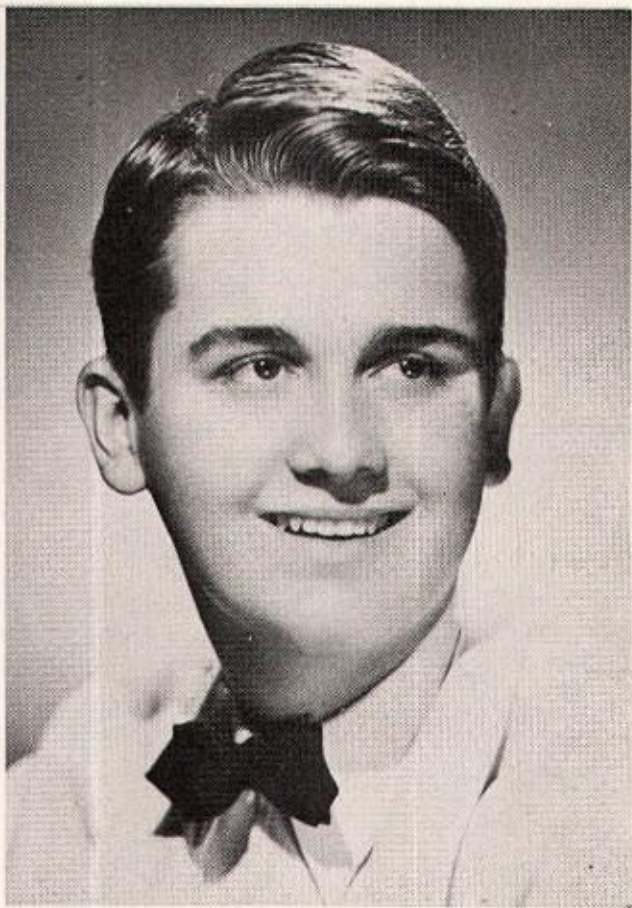

GERALD EDWARD SCHNELL

Sioux City, Iowa

Jerry, who is a regular member of the "Head Clubbing Club" during second period, came from "the hill" and St. Joe's with the rest of the gang. Jerry, too, is a four-year man in the Sodality. His career in Prep athletics was limited to Freshman participation in everything but his ace-in-the-hole, which is skiing. His very worthy ambition is "to buy a real hot-rod." His hobby is "buying gas" for his unreal hot-rod. Over the week end he is frequently heard to say, "Let's try Guise's place."

DAVID JOHN SMITH
Pasadena, California

"Smitty" is one of the smarter Prepsters who "left his home in the South to roam 'round the North." As a graduate of Maple Leaf School he entered Adelpia as a freshman. He was a football manager in his first and last years here, and was admitted into the Harlequins in his freshman year for his work in "Squaring It With the Boss." His relaxing and interesting hobby is ice skating. You'll always know when "Smitty" is around because you'll hear "Aw, turn green" wherever he is.—(It's his favorite saying.)

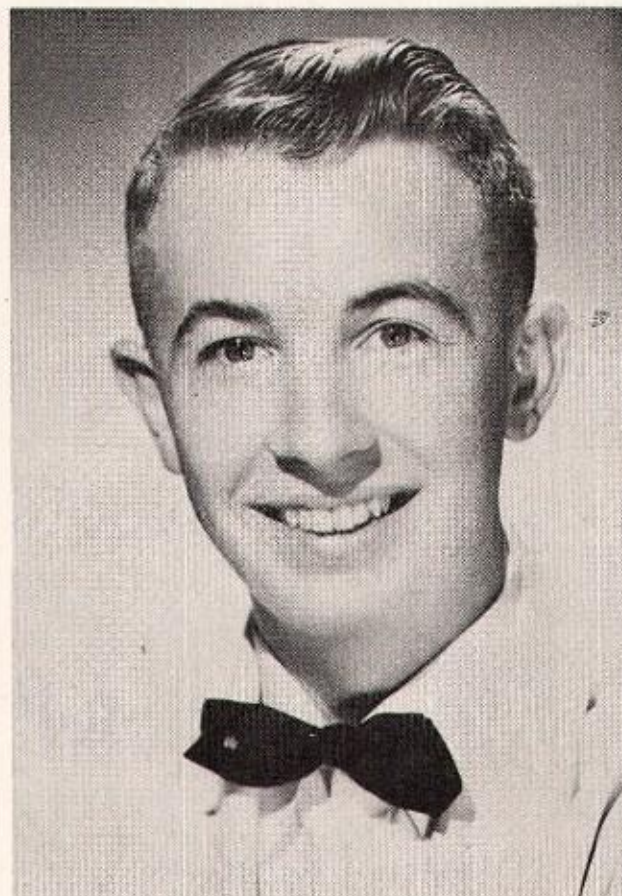

MICHAEL JOSEPH SCORDAN
Seattle, Washington

"Flash" cScordan—catch? came to Prep from St. Joseph's as a freshman and has been showing up more or less regularly for the past four years. Because he works after school, Mike's activities have been limited, but he has managed to find time to be an active Sodalist for the last two years. His hobby, "Working on my car," will probably be a great aid in his ambition, "To build a rod that will beat Lyon's Olds." His constant advice is "Don't get carried away!"

JAMES DUFFY STITT
Seattle, Washington

"To make a short cut to Roosevelt High" is the ambition of this ever-smiling and very popular Prepster. Jim also is the proud possessor of a fine record of activities. He has been a three class officer in his first, second, and fourth year at Prep and an active member of the Sodality 1, 2, 3, and 4. As a member of the Pep Club he did much for the school and its activities. He is on the Echo staff, and his favorite saying is, "Ah Horse Hockey."

JOSEPH DOYLE STOCKING
Seattle, Washington

"Reggie" entered Prep as a freshman from St. Joseph's, and started the slow climb to seniority. He didn't leave a trail strewn with colossal achievements, but Joe led a full high school life. He was an active member of the Sodality for four years, Exchange editor of the PANTHER, a member of the Pep Club, and a class officer 2. "This will never do" expresses Joe's full concern about a subject, when and if he's ever concerned. "Reg's" noteworthy ambition is "to have one"—we certainly hope he does.

RALPH THOMAS SYCAMORE

Seattle, Washington

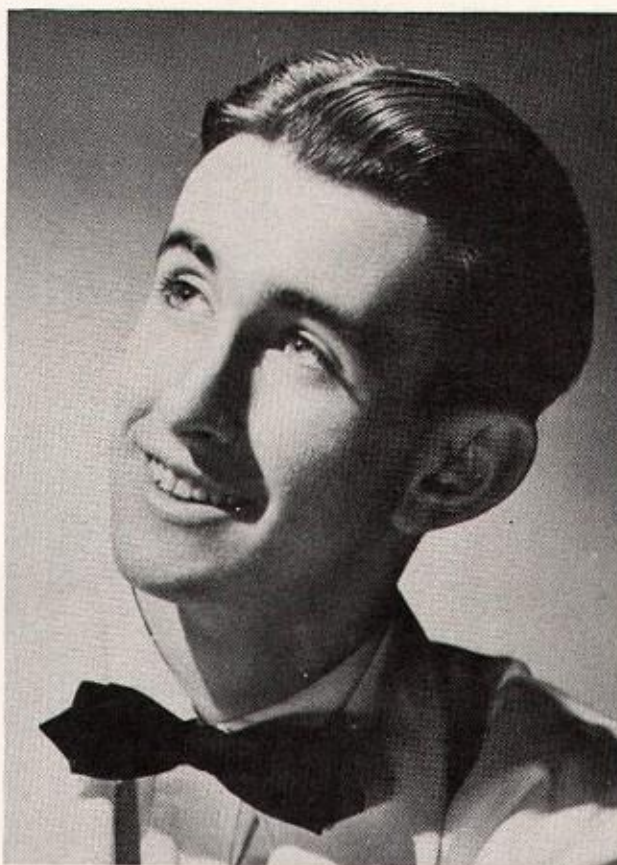

"Packy" came to Prep as a freshman in 1948 from Packwood (honest, it's a town) Grade School. Since then he has been trudging the weary miles from West Seattle every morning for four years. Ralph is always good for a laugh and when something amuses him he screams "Good! Good!" no matter where he is. Aside from his daily treks to and from school, he has been busy trying to achieve his ambition, "To be sheriff of West Seattle."

RICHARD JAMES TESSIER

Seattle, Washington

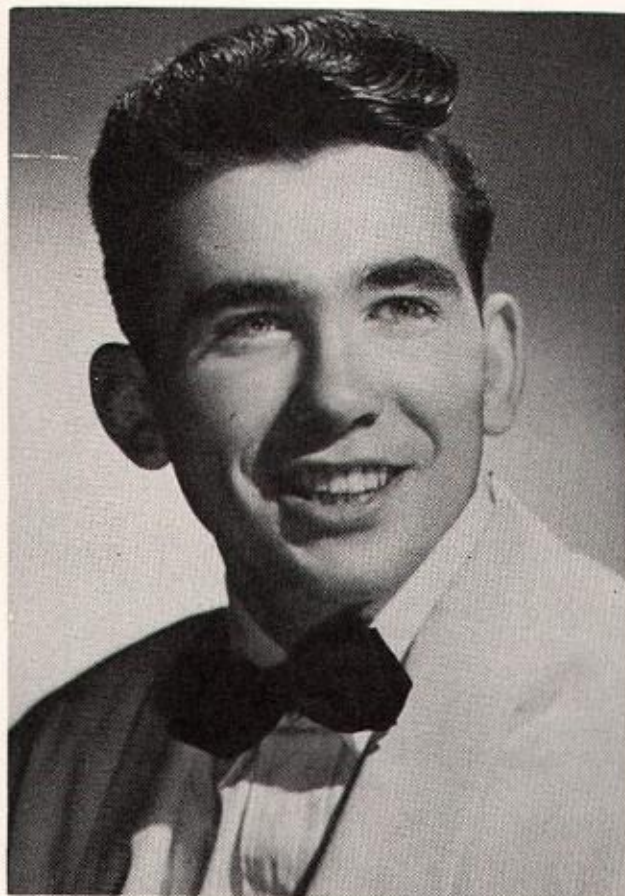

Dick came to Prep as a frosh from Bryant Grade School. It didn't take him long to get into the swing of things, making use of his hobby of photography. He was PANTHER reporter for his final two years and PANTHER photographer for his first two. In his senior year he did double duty by also writing for the Echo. He was a class officer as a freshman. Dick usually accompanies his smiling greeting with, "Whadda ya say?" With his brains (he was an honor student 1, 2, 3, 4), he ought to finish out his ambition, which is "to get out of college."

JOHN DAVIS THOMAS III

Seattle, Washington

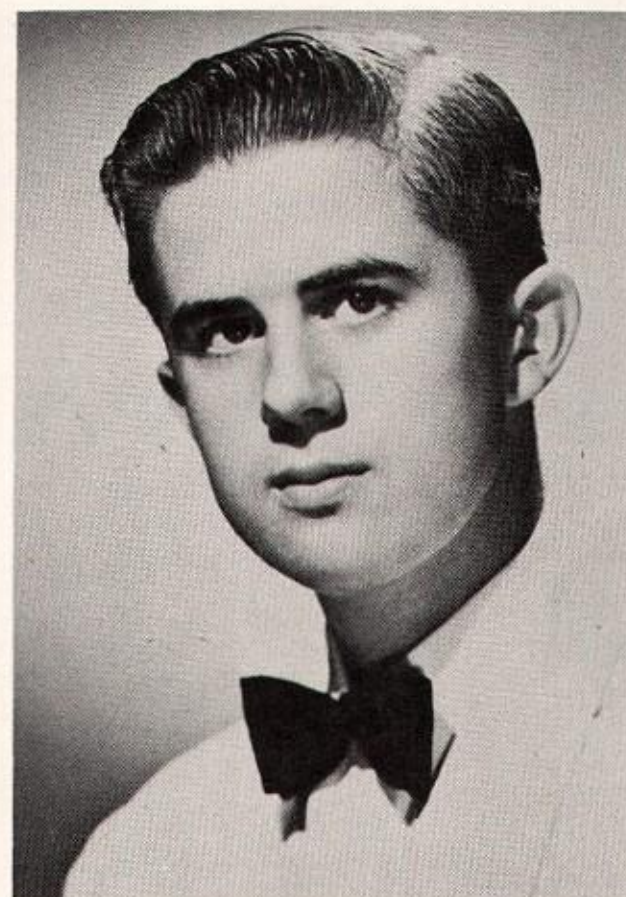

Jack came to Prep as a transfer from Bainbridge High in his sophomore year. At Prep he made a name for himself as a hustler and a man who was interested in school activities—such as PANTHER Staff 3, Echo Staff 4, and Pep Club 4. Jack was elected Student Officer 4, was a Sodalist 3, 4, and turned to athletics as a member of the Track Squad 3, 4. Jack's ambition is to invent a more efficient bottle opener, while his hobby is watching John Carroll operate at a dance.

DONALD EUGENE TESSIER

Seattle, Washington

"Flash!" Bryant's Grade School gift to Seattle Prep has taken another picture for the PANTHER. Yes Don has taken an active interest in this job and he can always be seen focusing his camera for another action picture. When he is not spending his time with his school activities, he can be seen in his "Hot" '29 Plymouth. Besides taking pictures for the Panther 1, 2, 4, he was also a PANTHER Reporter 2, 4. After graduating from Prep, Don plans to study photography in college. His favorite saying is "You can't take it with you."

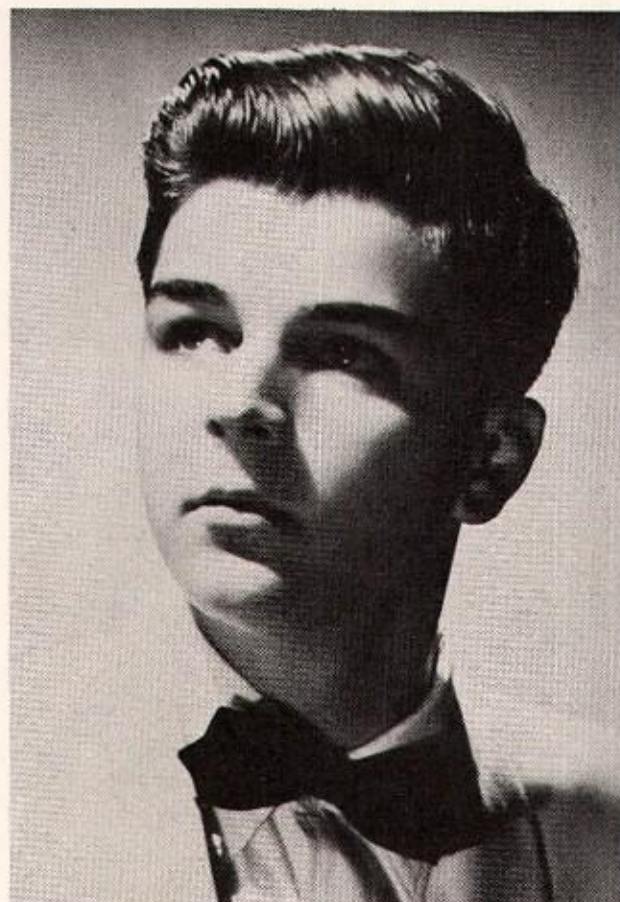

LOUIS JOHN TOPEL
Seattle, Washington

John arrived in '48 from St. Joseph's. He immediately set out to make a fine record for himself, Honor Student 1, 2, 3, 4, and Valedictorian 4. His well-balanced record is impressive. Basketball 1, Football 1, 3, Student Council 3, 4, Sodality 3, Panther Club 4, Debate Club 2, 3, 4, President 4, PANTHER staff 2, 3, 4, Editor-in-chief 4, Echo Editor-in-chief 4. This makes his hobby of "Bragging," well worth while. With all of these attributes John will probably succeed in his ambition, "To prove that the Jesuits are rich."

PATRICK JOSEPH TOMKINS
Seattle, Washington

Patrick Joseph Tomkins was St. Joe's gift to Seattle Prep. Pat is best known around school for his terrific speed as he and Schnell just barely squeeze into the classroom before the noon bell. Some of his activities include: Football 1, 3, 4, Varsity 3, 4; Basketball 1, and Letterman's Club 3, 4. He was also Student Officer 1, and a Sodalist 1, 2, 3, 4. Pat has a worthwhile ambition "to be rich." His hobby is the K. of C., and his favorite saying, "Let's try the B. and H."

KARL JOSEPH VEIT
Seattle, Washington

Karl came to Prep as a Frosh from St. Benedict's. Since then, he has devoted most of his time to his hobbies, cars and girls. With his hard-earned cash he bought a jacket which has become a familiar sight around the halls of Adelpia. His ambition is to buy a jacket to match the jacket. He was a member of the Sodality 4, and Harlequins 4, having been received for his work in "Julius Caesar." Also included in his list of activities was Pep Club 3, 4. Karl's favorite saying, "What the John?" can often be heard ringing out in German class.

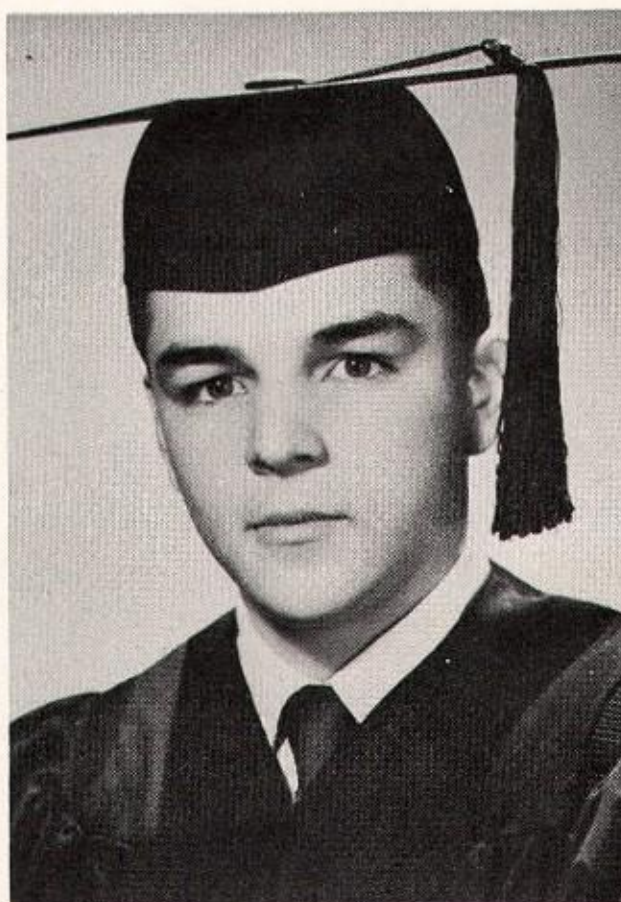

KARL FREDERICK VOEGTLIN
Seattle, Washington

Karl came to Prep as a heralded freshman from St. Joseph's. He was one of Prep's outstanding athletes, playing Varsity Football 2, 3, 4, All-Cross State 3, 4, Tri-City team 4, and Catholic All-American 4. "Stork" was a mainstay on the Basketball team 2, 3, 4, All-Cross State 3, 4, and Captain 4. He also played Varsity Baseball 2, 3, 4. But Karl's achievements were noticeable in other fields, Student Council 1, 2, 4, Sodality 1, 2, 3, 4, Panther Club 3, 4, Lettermen 2, 3, 4, and Prom Committee 3. "Stork" spends his spare time muttering "Aganewa-Ma-Wa" and watching Waters drop transmissions.

LOUIS JOHN TOPEL

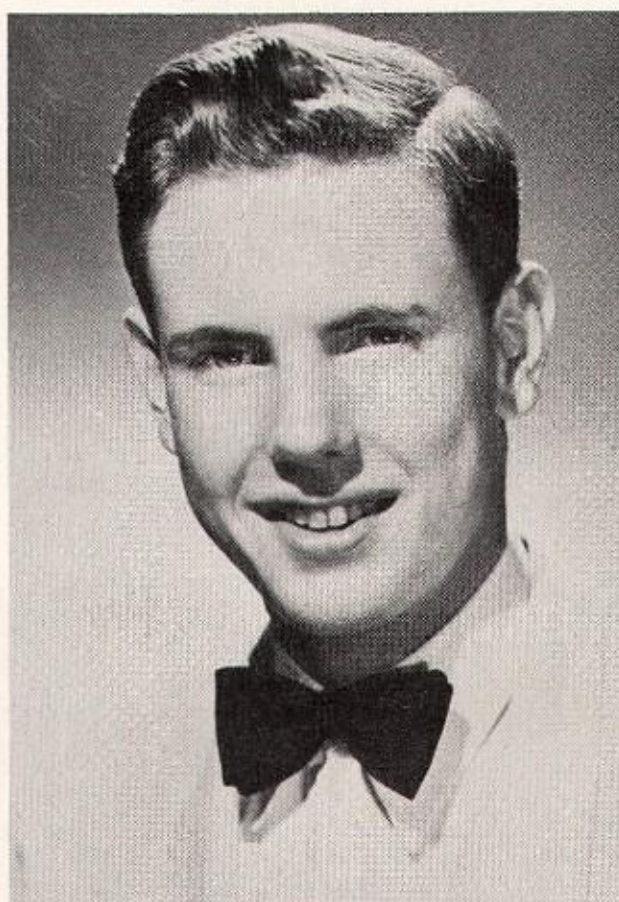

Valedictorian
Class of '52

ROBERT EDMUND WASS

Seattle, Washington

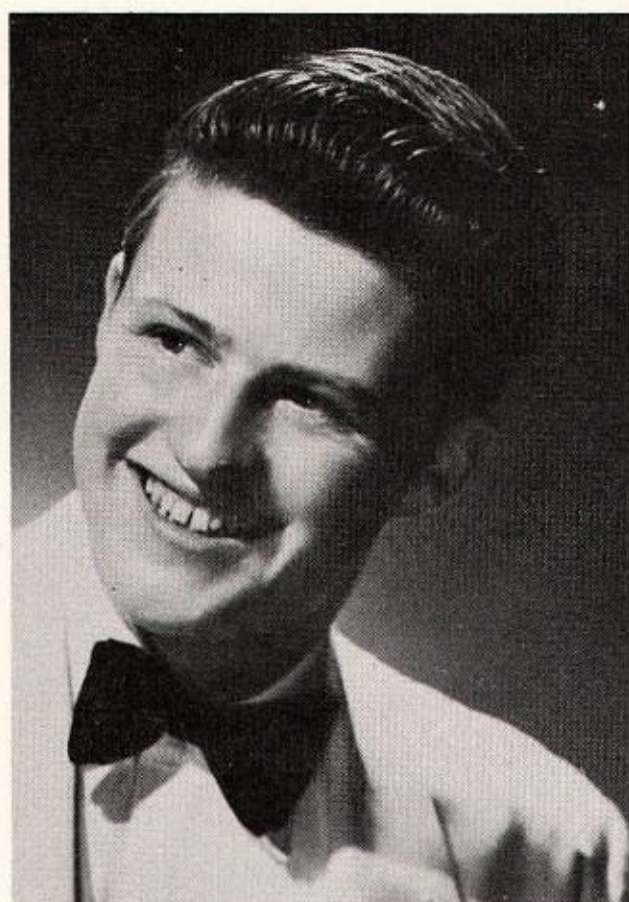

Bob graduated in '48 from Holy Family Grade School out White Center way. His ambition is to follow a career in Journalism, and he furthered that by his work on the PANTHER staff for all four of his years at Prep and also on the Echo staff in his senior year, and he was a four-year member of the Sodality. One really has to know Bob to know his only hobby of "Sighing." His favorite saying, "Well," comes in quite handy at certain times.

MICHAEL MATTHEW WEBER

Seattle, Washington

Mike came to Prep in the fall of '48. Since then his face has been seen constantly around Prep Hall. The Sodality first claimed Mike's attention and he was a four-year member. Between his hobby of "Telling Holmes and Voegtlin the time," and his other activities: Harlequin Club 3, 4, Debate 1, PANTHER staff 1, 2, 3, 4, Pep Club 3, 4, and Pep Band 3, Mike has been busy these four years. His presence is assured whenever one hears, "I wasn't asleep, Father."

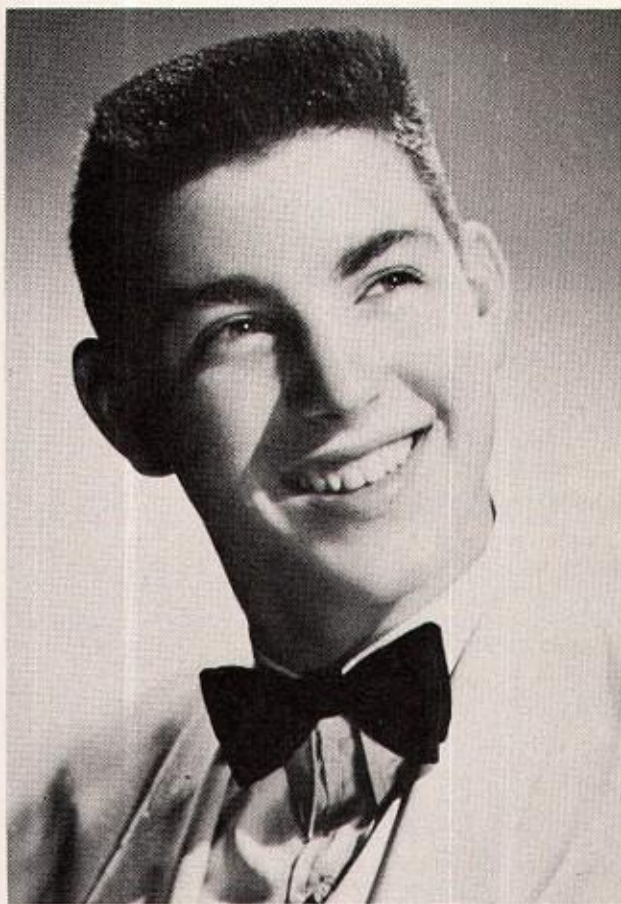

RICHARD JOSEPH WATERS

Seattle, Washington

"Sleepy Dick" rolled into Prep as a freshman from St. Theresa's and immediately set out to catch up on all the sleep that everyone else had lost or might lose, much to the dismay of Mr. Purdy and the rest. But Dick was not to pine his time away at Prep—no one does. He joined the Sodality in his freshman year and has been active ever since. The urge "to own a car" hit him as it does so many others and now Dick owns a fleet of two which he hopes some day to use in beating "Lyon's Olds."

JAMES EDWIN WHITMAN

San Pedro, California

"Walt" was born in San Pedro and moved to Seattle, where he graduated from Blessed Sacrament Grade School. Jim held the office of Secretary of 3-D during his junior year. He has been one of the more active members of the Harlequin Club, being in the cast of both "Mist Before the Periscope" and "Harvey," besides being in the stage crew for many plays. Jim's ambition is "To be a bachelor," and his hobby is magic. His favorite saying is, "She wouldn't kiss me in the canoe, so I paddled her back."

GERARD STEPHEN WELCH

Seattle, Washington

"Smiley," or "Pepsodent," can always be found behind those sparkling white teeth. He's a native of this fair metropolis and a graduate of St. Joe's, up "on the hill." Jerry played football for his first three years at Prep and baseball as a freshman. He is a four-year Sodalist and a member of the Panther Club this year. Jerry's ambition is to make a million dollars before he is twenty-one and his special hobby is going over to Guise's place across the Sound. When he's in doubt, he can always be heard saying, "HUH?"

ROBERT CONVERSE WOODS

Seattle, Washington

Bob came to Prep from Duniway Grade School in Portland. He was a member of the Student Council for one year and class officer the same year. He assisted many Seattle Prep plays by being a fine stage manager. His hobby is ice-skating, and everyone who went to the Letterman's Club skating party is an admirer of his ice-skating ability. He's always saying "Who's buying today?" and his ambition is to retire at twenty-one, which, with his fine personality and many talents, will be a cinch.

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen! I have a testimonial from one of our contented customers. Kindly bend an ear."

Dear Mr. Scordan Shaving Suds:

I bought a jarr of yer shaving creme. The labell on it sez "No mugg required." What shall I shave?

Yers truly,

RON FARELL.

Just write a letter of twenty-five pages or more answering this question and for each of the ten best letters we will award a box of Mike Murphy-Munchies.

This year's sophomore class has had many outstanding figures in the field of sports. . . . In football Lee Stan, Ed Allen, Nottingham, Bill Anderson, McDonald, Marshbank, Ditore, Paul Dempsey, and Cavello played on the team. . . . Two of the sophomores, Jim Navone and Lee LaPierre were injured in early season turnout and so did not see action during the season. . . . On the "B" team Kendell, Sequenza, and Tom Morrow made their letters. . . . Basketball saw such names as Markey, McCullough, Zwettler, Kendell, Gannon, Nord, Gockel, Kellaheer, Carroll, and Sherman. . . . When baseball came around we found Allen, Ditore, Navone in the lineup . . . also Swanson, Schnider, Kellaheer, Frey, Cavello. . . .

In the Intermural debate on December, congratulations are in order to the team of R. Weber and J. Riley. . . . At C. P. S. the teams of Piro-DeMan, Manca-Giacobazzi, Geraghty-Naumes were entered in the Class C Debate. . . . The only sophomore team in Class B was Weber-Riley. . . .

Who can forget the performance of Tom DeMan as a nurse in Harvey. . . . Also in the cast was John Giacobazzi who played the doctor's wife. . . .

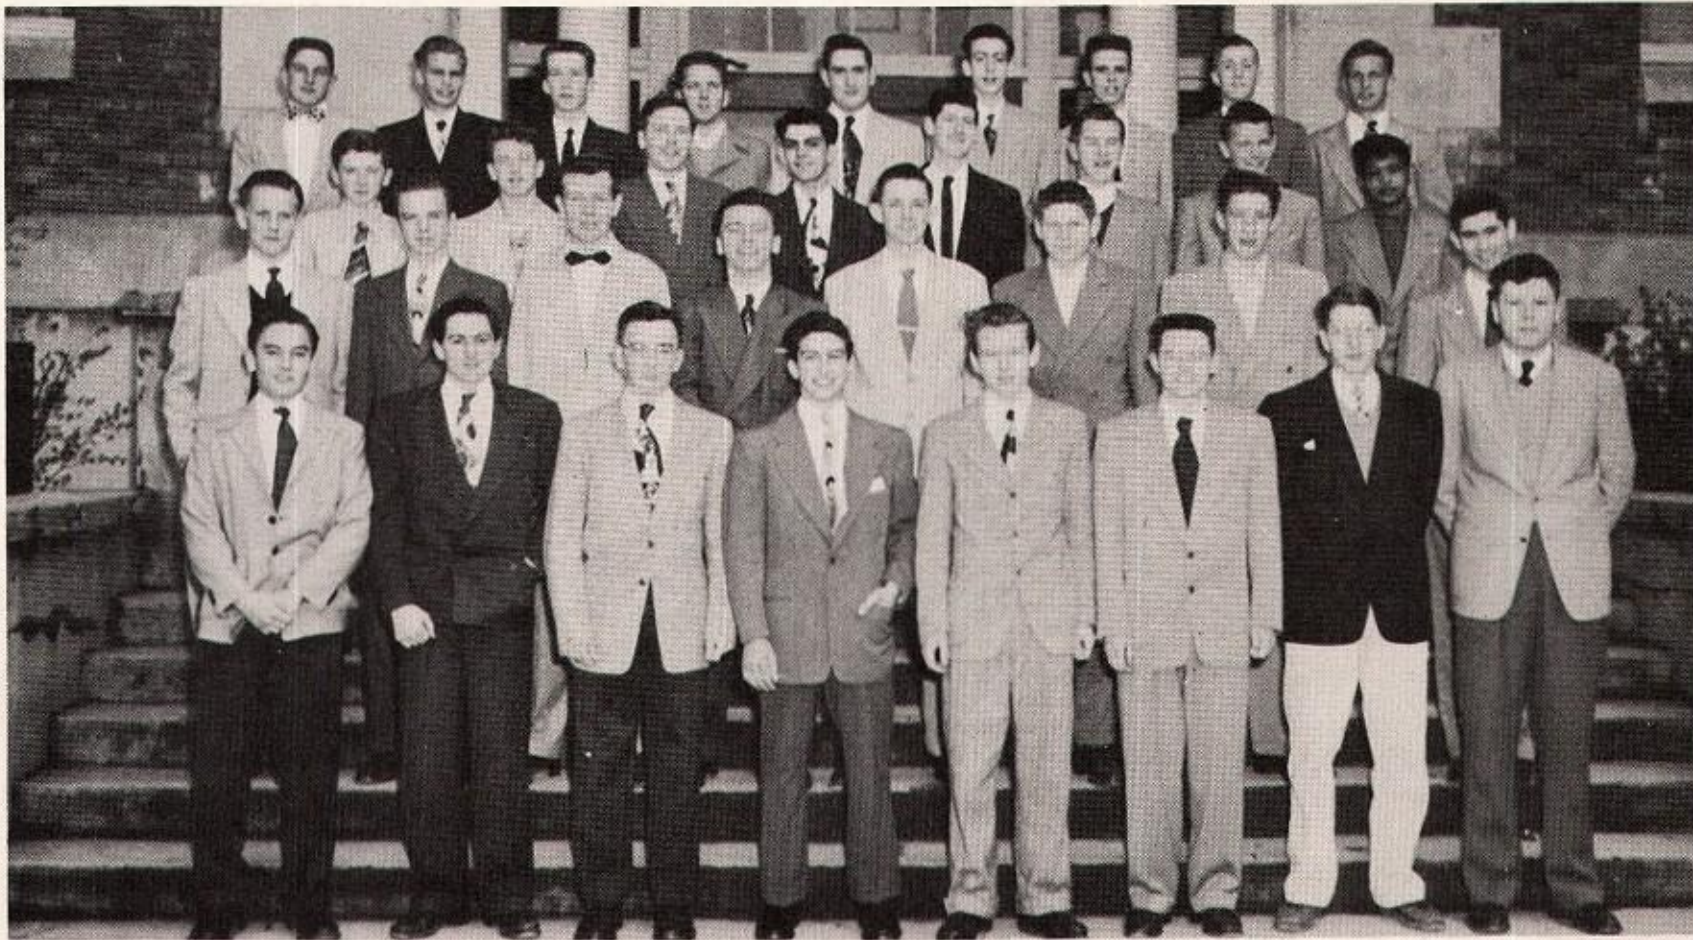

Moderators of the respective classes were Mr. Hurley 2A, Mr. Renner 2B, Mr. Keys 2C, and Mr. Robinson 2D.

While Mr. Lucid moderated 1C, Mr. Pauson directed 1D.

The Frosh Football team, coached by Mr. Lucid, S. J., produced such standouts as Jerry Sullivan and Bob Engle and Mike Lombard. . . . The Cubs were coached by Mr. Keys and played six-man intermural football. . . . As Basketball season rolled around the Frosh made an impressive record of twelve wins and seven losses with Rois leading the field with 107 points. . . . A total of seventy Cubs were under the watchful eye of Mr. Keys.

Nearly 100 Freshmen joined the Sodality which was moderated by Mr. Fontana, S. J. . . . Joe Manning and Ralph Alfieri, were elected respective prefects.

The debators got off to a flying start with an Intermural tournament on December 8. . . . The highlight of the season for the frosh was when John Hutchinson took first place in Class C Extemp at C. P. S.

In the field of Dramatics, Jerry Murphy took the lead in The Bishop Misbehaves.

As the year draws to a close the freshmen can look forward to their next year at Prep when they will be high and mighty sophomores.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the executive branch of student government. It is up to this hard-working group to okay plans for each of the many student activities that occur each year and to see to it that each organization gets all the help and encouragement it needs on its projects. Furthermore, it coordinates all the clubs into the smooth-functioning school that Prep is.

This council is made up of all class presidents and of the presidents of the Panther, Lettermen, Pep, Debate, and Harlequin clubs. Also playing an important part are the editors of the PANTHER and the ECHO, the head of the Publicity Committee, and the Prom Committee Chairman. It is presided over by the officers of the A. S. S. P. This year, Jerry Murphy, duly elected president last year, was ably assisted by Joe Quinn, veep, and Larry Gahan, secretary.

Again the Student Council was fortunate in having the aid of the Rev. Christopher McDonnell, S. J., in the capacity of moderator.

PANTHER

With success as their goal and "Get it done," the motto, the Panther Club of Seattle Prep . . . 13 senior and 15 junior members strong . . . started off on one of the most prosperous and useful years in the organization's history.

Under the leadership of prexy Ken Nyberg and faculty adviser Mr. E. J. Robinson, S. J., the Panther Club officiated in its roll of school service club at all the athletic, dramatic and social events held by Prep during the year.

Distinguished from their fellow students by their royal blue sweaters with the growling panther head emblem, the boys of the Panther Club recorded a most eventful and accomplished year.

Seldom before had there been such complete coverage of the football games by competent ushers.

CLUB

Every maple court contest of the Basketball season found the predominant flash of a royal blue sweater at all the doors and ticket windows. . . . Playgoers were escorted to their seats by the genial 'Boys in blue.' . . . They sweated some when they laid the 'tarp' for a pre-game rally . . . and the dust flew thick and fast when the 'clean-up detail' went to work to put the gym back in shape. . . . $100 was donated by the club to the ECHO to help make this year's Yearbook one of the school's 'best.' . . . Finally the culmination of a year's labor . . . the Panther Club semi-formal dance for Prepsters only, the gala 'Washington Ball.'

The 'Old Seniors' are fading away and by way of will and testament they leave their spirit of cooperation and accomplishment, to the junior members. . . . From the way the 'fledglings' have proved themselves in the past year, they leave the club in good hands.—KEN NYBERG.

Under the editorship of John Topel, the 1951 PANTHER continued to bring the most important news of school events to the students of Seattle Prep. The accurate reporting informed Joe Prep of every school activity from singing to speaking, studying to playing, and acting to praying.

Through the efforts of Mike Holmes, sports coverage was always up to date and the Athletics page was always the most avidly read section of the PANTHER. Mike Dennehy edited the news of school activities and acquainted each student with the school clubs and their various duties. John Ryan kept the students amused with the humorous poems and stories on his feature page.

And then there is the body of the paper, the reporters. Enough cannot be said of the boys who get the news and write it up with little or no reward. Needless to say, without them there could be no PANTHER.

And last, but certainly far from least, is Mr. Edmund Robinson who did his usual fine job as faculty adviser.

Joe Read was appointed feature editor. Larry Gahan was made head of the sports department with Jim Murphy assisting. The circulation of the PANTHER rose to a new height, almost 1500 copies. Besides the 450 received by the students of Prep, the parents and boosters also received 600 copies and the eighth graders of parochial schools get 400 copies.

Again under their moderator, Mr. Robinson, the new PANTHER staff continued to turn

CHEERLEADERS

Kneeling: Mike Siquenza, Joe Scudder.

Standing: John Owens, Tom Hoban.

A team is only as good as its backing, and the cheerleaders for the Prep football team, Tom Hoban and Joe Scudder, gave the team the kind of backing seldom seen. They led the student body and really fanned the flame of spirit in the students. They put forth every effort, vocal and acrobatic, to lead the cheers and they really did a fine job.

Basketball season saw Mike Siquenza and John Owens leading the yells. Inexperience proved to be no handicap for these boys, as they were inventing their own clever cheers in a matter of days. The crowd got many a laugh from their antics. These four boys showed the squads that everyone was behind them. The backing was good and, consequently, our teams looked very good. We're extremely proud of both.

The 1951-52 season was the best within memory of masquer or marionette! . . . The curtain was always up on a show, banquet, or theatrical revelry of some sort. . . . Three three-act plays . . . one one-act; three banquets . . . one all-school dance and one closed Treasure Hunt supper-dance . . . all hits.

"HARVEY," starring Jim Maher and Pat Brennan, opened the season with a smash. Then came another comedy with a touch of the mystery thriller, "THE BISHOP MISBEHAVES," also starring Pat Brennan, only this time with Jerry J. Murphy as co-lead. "SPREADING THE NEWS" was next for St. Pat's Day down town at the Metropolitan. . . . Ten fine parts and really no leads. Very colorful with its Irish folk costumes. . . . Finally, "JULIUS CAESAR" in modern dress proved the grand finale to a grand year. Jim McGrath as Brutus, Frank Kalberer as Caesar, Ron Cass as Cassius, Charley Beytebiere as Antony, and Pat Cook as Casca climaxed two fine years of Harlequin activity.

The actor-manager combine of officers, Beytebiere, McGrath, Kalberer and Hoban, along with those super-charged promoters Cass and Cook and Brennan made our season one long to be remembered and one not easily to be surpassed.

PROM COMMITTEE

Larry Gahan, Joe Meehan, Dan Lenoue, Joe Scudder, Don Clark.

The last sweet strains of Lee Settle's music died away into the night, and another Prep Prom was but a memory. The memory was happiest for eighty-six seniors, for whom the Prom marked the last great social function of their high school life. The memory of the Prom of 1952 will long live. We will always remember the casual, eloquent dinner, the rhythmic dancing at the Inglewood Golf and Country Club, and the joyous house parties that lasted far into the morning.

Besides the seniors, there were other honored guests, the ten sophomores who will be the next Prom committee. These were: Ed Allen, Bill Anderson, Pat Carroll, Tom DeMan, John Ditore, Jerry Frey, Jim Kizer, Tom Morrow, and Jim Navone.

Many thanks from grateful Prepsters to the hard working Prom committee for a memorable Prom. The efficient Prom committee was composed of nine juniors: Don Clark, Larry Gahan, Pat Gleeson, Dan Lenoue, Joe Meehan, Dennis Murphy, Jeff Pascoe, Jim Roberts, and Joe Scudder.

PROM KING AND QUEEN

The night of May 16 found much celebrating—for it was the annual Junior Prom. Reigning over this festive function was His Majesty, King Philip Clark. Assisting him in his honorary duties was his date, Queen Madeline Hopper.

King Philip was crowned at the intermission, in an interesting ceremony, between acts put on by entertainment from Seattle University.

Phil should have been right at home at the Inglewood Golf and Country Club, that beautiful May night, for it was a Prom fit for a King.

Congratulations to the King and Queen, and to the Prom committee for a Prom that ranks as "the best ever."

The Catholic Truth Committee attempted to put the spirit of the Sodality into all Sodalists. It also provided answers for any spiritual questions involving social or moral problems. Under Joe Quinn's leadership, Catholic periodicals were sent to the armed services in Korea. Denny Murphy was secretary-treasurer. Mr. Lucid, S. J., although he coached three sports, led the group to great heights.

The Eucharistic Committee was formed to foster a devotion of the Mass in the school. Charts were kept in each classroom where the count of daily Masses was recorded. The number of boys at Mass rose perceptibly due to the committee's work. Ken Nyberg and Jim Haley were Semester prefects with Dan Lenoue secretary-treasurer. Mr. Keys, S. J., did a very good job as moderator of the group.

EUCCHARISTIC COMMITTEE

Fifth: D. Clark, M. Kelliher, R. Carmody, F. Leibly, R. Mooney, P. Clark, P. Tomkins, G. Schnell, S. LaRiviere, J. Condon.

The Apostolic Committee's goal was to increase the reverence towards the saints and the Church in general. It also headed drives of corporal works of mercy. Through the toil of the group, trips to Firland Sanitarium were made to bring the patients to Mass. The committee's prefect was Phil Clark. Bill Hooper served as secretary. Father Zelenak, director of the entire Sodality, moderated.

The Marian Committee was established to spread the devotion of Mary and the ideals she represents, especially recitation of the rosary. The efforts of the committee were fruitful as more boys now say the daily rosary. John Ryan was prefect and Larry Gahan, secretary. Mr. Robinson, S. J., the energetic leader of many other school activities, was moderator.

SENIOR—JUNIORS

The Debate Club, while it took a tie for first place in the Puget Sound Debate League, didn't seem to be able to place in debate at the major tourneys of Seattle U., Gonzaga, C. P. S., and W. S. C., but rather seemed to concentrate on the individual events. The only debate cup the forensic group took home was Topel and Beytebiere's 1st place in cross-questioning at C. P. S. At Seattle U., while there were many in the finals of most of the events, no one came out with a trophy. At Gonzaga, however, it was different. Ken Nyberg took first place in Impromptu and tied with Jim McGrath for a second place in Extemp. Jerry Murphy, in his only tournament performance of the year, copped second place in Oratory. At C. P. S. five shining trophies fell into the hands of five joyful Prep debaters. Topel and Beytebiere were awarded first in Cross-Question, Nyberg took a second in one-man debate and a first in Extemp, while Jim McGrath won second in Interpretive Reading.

Elsewhere, in League Debate, Prep tied Bellevue for first in the league, even though Prep, in the fracas between the two schools came out one better, winning two and losing only one. Thus Prep was allowed to compete in the State tournament at W. S. C., where Topel and Nyberg finished all their inter-school debate with a tie for third.

SOPHOMORES—FRESHMEN

This year the Freshmen debaters were so well organized under their moderator, Mr. Fontana, that they formed a separate debate club in conjunction with the Sophomores.

On Saturday, Dec. 8, the Sophomores and Freshmen engaged in a three-round debate tournament. After Mass, the first round began and some excellent speaking was demonstrated in spite of the inexperience of the debaters.

From the team standpoint, the batteries of J. Riley-Weber, Miller-Alfieri, and Grant-Leigh were best, as they tied for first with three wins and no losses. Fourth and fifth teams were Wood-Doyle and Piro-DeMan.

Individually, J. Riley, Grant, and Miller were the best speakers; each capturing three first places in as many debates. Much experience was gained by the Frosh for their succeeding debates at College of Puget Sound.

These Frosh were the first in Prep's history to compete at C. P. S.; Hutchinson-Doyle, and Grant-Wood. Sophomores competing were: Piro-DeMan, Riley-Weber, and Giacobazzi-Manca. Of this group, Hutchinson returned with a first-place trophy in Extemp.

Much of the success of both debate clubs must be attributed to their hard-working moderators, Mr. Hurley and Mr. Fontana. The whole school owes them a debt of gratitude for their fine work.

LETTERMEN

Standing: Cris Melgard, Jim Harney, Phil Clark, Hal Brindle, Ray Brown, Jerry Kenny, Karl Voegtlin, Fred Lyons, Dan McMullen, Joe Quinn.

Success! That is the keynote of the undertakings of the Seattle Prep Lettermen's Club this year. The combination of leadership and of advice are the two things which brought about that success. The leadership of the Lettermen's Club consisted of Jack George, President; Karl Voegtlin, Vice-President; and Dennis Murphy, Secretary-Treasurer. The advice was extended most graciously by Fr. Paul Weissenberg, S. J.

The Lettermen Club's most successful venture of the year was the annual "Lettermen's Club Dance" which was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Later in the year the Lettermen's Club joined forces with the Panther Club in the co-sponsorship of the annual "Washington Ball" which was held in the beautiful ballroom of the Edmond Meany Hotel.

CLUB

The success of the Lettermen's Club was not limited to social affairs alone but it was also marked by success in other fields of endeavor. Organized into daily patrols the Lettermen were instrumental in keeping order about the school grounds, assisting the Panther Club in ushering at games, and administering spats to the unfortunate violaters who broke the school rules.

The high spot of the year for members of the Lettermen's Club is the annual initiations at Fox Point on Lake Washington. Where, after having won their varsity letter, the pledges become full-fledged Lettermen upon completion of the traditional initiation which is directed by the members of the club.

ECHO

It is extremely difficult to capture the spirit of Prep within the covers of a book. Yet that is precisely the purpose of this yearbook. To remind each and every graduating Prepster of 1952 that these were all his—plays, debates, dances, games—this is the purpose of the Centennial Echo.

Last year the Juniors of Prep selected the men whom they wished to edit their last Prep yearbook. As a result of this vote, John Topel was named Editor-in-Chief, his job being to plan each layout and supervise the whole Annual. As Feature Editor, his classmates selected Charley Beytebiere to direct the write-ups on the senior and activity pages. As Business Manager, Ken Nyberg raised funds for the Annual and arranged for the covers. Last, but not least, Mike Dennehy edited the entire sport pages.

Besides those pictured on this page, Pat Meagher, Dick Tessier, John Mingus, Jim Stitt, Jim McGrath, and Don Tessier of the Senior class also worked on the Annual. Underclassmen who wrote include Pat Bouker and Pat Raney. We also wish to thank Fathers Lamphier, Weissenberg, and Falsetto for their assistance.

If, in future years, some Prep grad can pick up this Annual and then remember Mrs. Perry's Cafeteria, or the retreats, or the revolts, then we will know this book is a success. We hope it is.

COACH JOHN GOODWIN

Entering upon his fourth year's coaching here at the Prep, Johnny Goodwin is setting a record he can well be proud of. Although he didn't have any "Wally" or a Wonder Team the records are good, just the same. In Football and Basketball Prep has been built into a contending power in the state. It is with great hope that we the Class of 1952 view the Panther teams of the coming years that will be under Goodwin's tutelage. Our record as a class will not be exclusive in athletics, our trophies will be surpassed, and our stars will be outshone, but under our great coach our spirit can never be surpassed. The greatest asset, our coach, is what we the Class of '52 will to you, the future Panther teams. You all have been acquainted with the past records and coaches here at Seattle Prep. Every student knows the coach and his coaching. Led by his dominating drive and persistent spirit John Goodwin in his few years at Prep has built a football squad in contention for the mythical State Championship, entered a team that placed sixth in the State "A," and organized a baseball nine that later won American Legion honors. Last but not least, this year, from depleted ranks he formulated teams that won the Catholic Northwest Championship in football and basketball. His records in baseball have however, yet to be established since this year he turned over the reins to Mr. Lucid, S. J.

The Class of 1952 salutes you, John Goodwin.

MANAGERS

This is the story of the guy who gets the sweatsox thrown in his face, the tape on his arm, and an angry cry when anything is missing. You know, of course, of whom I speak. There certainly could not be more than one breed of the persistently loyal creatures! Prep's managers were not to be outshone this season. By their consistently hard workings the Panthers were well equipped every game, win, lose, or draw. We had a few returning verans this year. They were: John Mingus, Pat Coogan, Bob Denini, Bill Hooper, Bob Beymer, Bob Fitzimmons, Chuck Naze, and newcomer Stan Wagner. Don't think that these boys are undeserving of their praise. No small picture or a few kind words could ever satisfy the amount of work they do through every season. As usual this year we could not picture every manager in a separate picture, owing to the smallness of the Annual. However, those you see pictured represent only half of those who helped. I am sure if the coaches had it their way many of the managers would replace the athletes in space appropriated for honors.

PREP 13

The Panthers looked good in their first game by playing Highline to a tie. John Mingus and Pat Tomkins made Prep's underrated ground attack look good. John Mingus raced 34 yards to the goal line only to have the play called back because of a penalty. A few minutes later Joe Quinn threw 27 yards to Karl Voegtlin, who went over. Danny Lenoue kicked the extra point. The Pirates came back strong in the second period with two touchdowns. Still in the second period Quinn pitched a 19-yard pass to Tomkins to give the Panthers a first down on the 16. Three plays later Quinn hit Voegtlin in the end zone with a jump pass. Lenoue's kick went wide. The second half was scoreless.

Joe Quinn hurled 20 passes, completing nine for 165 yards—Prep made 13 first downs to the Pirates 6.

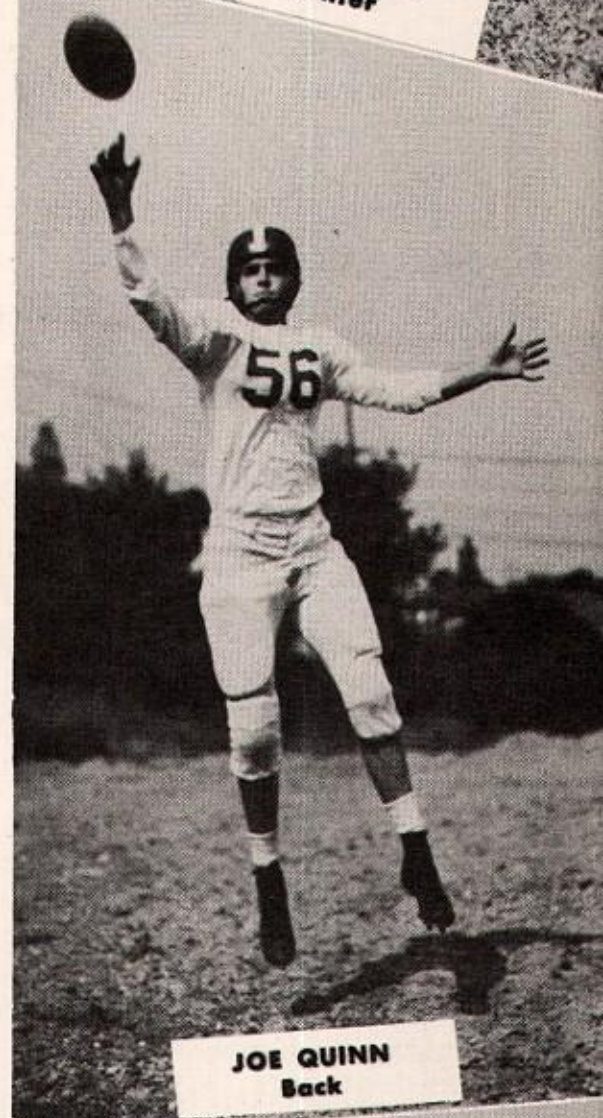

HIGHLINE 13

PREP 13

Prep played one of their better games in losing to a highly rated Everett team. The first time they got the ball the Panthers drove 50 yards for a touchdown. The drive was sparked by Quinn and Tomkins, and Lee Stann powered over from the 1. Lou Roselli accounted for Prep's other touchdown on a long run. The Gulls were trailing, 13-12, and time was running out when they got the ball deep in their own territory. Everett's Tom O'Brien loosed four quick passes, the fourth for 6 yards and a touchdown, and Everett led 18-13. The clock read less than 1 minute to go when the Panthers got the ball, but it was too late and the game ended by that score.

Quinn hit 8 for 18 for 135 yards—Joe also delivered the game's top punt, a 38-yard kick that rolled dead on Everett's 1-yard line.

PREP 26

The Panthers gained their first victory in three starts at the expense of previously unbeaten Bellingham. Scoring honors were divided among Lee Stann, John Mingus, Joe Quinn, and Pat Tomkins. Stann galloped 51 yards for Prep's longest run. Quinn went over from the 16, Mingus from the 11, and Tomkins from the 2. Jeff Pascoe and Stann each ran over a conversion. Phil Clark All Cross-State end, suffered an elbow injury that was to keep him out of competition for the remainder of the season. Prep scored 13 in the first period—0 in the second—and 13 in the third.

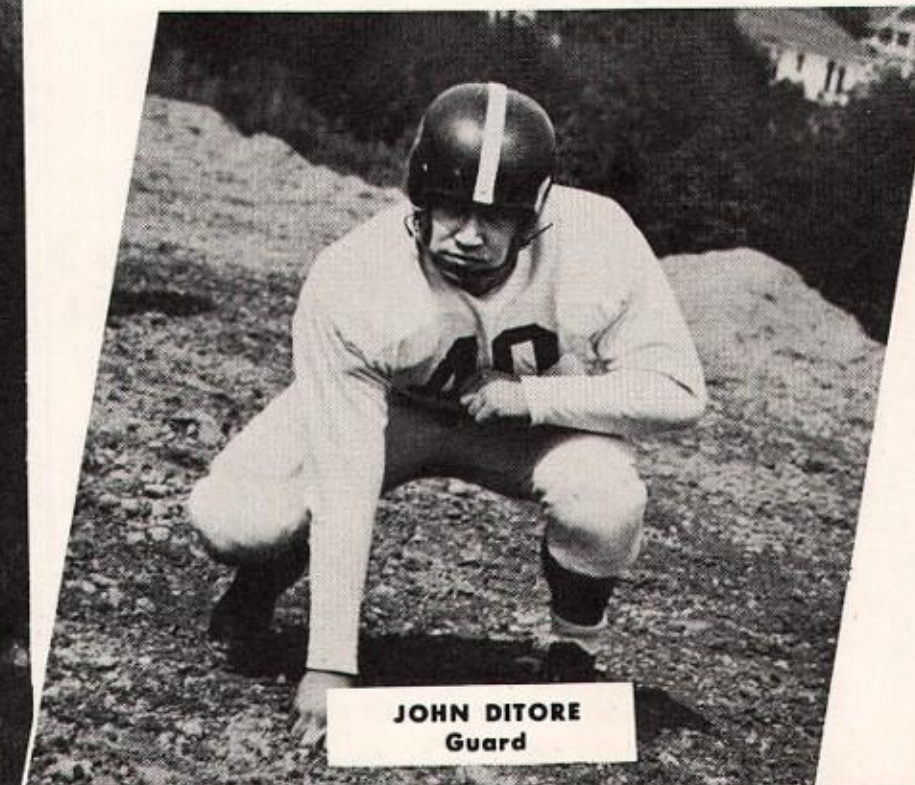

PREP 20

The Panthers scored all three of their touchdowns in the first half. The victory, Prep's second in three league starts, put them in second place behind undefeated Bremerton. The Tacoma team was completely outclassed in the first half, but the Panthers slowed down in the second and allowed Lincoln's only score. The Abes fumbled on the second play of the game and Lou Roselli, playing his best game of the season, recovered on their 30-yard line. Quinn passed to Voegtlin and Karl romped to the 1, where Quinn sneaked across. Roselli booted the extra point. Roselli set up the second score with a 65-yard dash to the 19. Shortly afterward Tomkins bucked over from the 1. Roselli again converted. Jeff Pascoe pounced on another Abe fumble and on the next play Tomkins went 27 yards to score. Roselli's kick was wide.

Brindle recovered a Lincoln fumble on Prep's 4-yard line.

PREP 0

The Panthers were held to 12 yards on the ground and 33 through the air in the first half. Karl Voegtlin showed well on defense, while Joe Quinn paced Prep's offensive attack. Bremerton drove 75 yards for a touchdown after receiving the opening kickoff. The drive ended in a 28-yard pass for a score. Shortly afterward, the Cats rolled 58 yards for a score. After an exchange of pass interceptions midway through the second period, Bremerton churned 38 yards for its third marker. On the final play of the game, Bremerton intercepted a Quinn pass on Prep's 20 and raced to Bremerton's fourth score. Prep's line halted two Bremerton drives on its own 3 and 19 in the evenly played second half. Three Prep drives were nipped in the second half by pass interceptions—Quinn completed 6 for 21 for 108 yards.

The Panthers surged to two fourth quarter scores after fumbling away the same number of chances in the third period. Bellarmine led at the half 12-6. The Panthers drove 83 yards in the first quarter for their only score of the half. The drive was sparked by Roselli and Pascoe, with Voegtlin taking a pass from Quinn for the final yardage. The Bells tied the count in the second quarter, but Prep went ahead on a drive paced by Quinn, Pascoe, and Roselli. Pascoe bulled over from the 9. Prep's two final touchdowns came on a run by Stann and two touchdown passes from Quinn to Voegtlin.

Quinn connected on five out of eight pass attempts, two for touchdowns and Pascoe romped for 117 yards rushing.

STADIUM 21

The Panthers played on even terms with the Tigers from Stadium for the third quarter, but couldn't break through to score. The Panthers threatened when John Mingus zig-zagged his way through the line for 69 yards, from his own 20 to Stadium's 21. Here Prep's only great threat ended, however, when they lost the ball on downs. Stadium's first score came after they recovered a Prep fumble on the Panther 1-yard line. They scored three plays later. The Tiger's scored their second touchdown after blocking a Panther punt on the 34. Their final tally climaxed a 35-yard drive.

John Mingus, Joe Quinn, and Karl Voegtlin sparked the Panthers.

PREP 35

O'DEA 0

When the Panthers took the field for the game, the spectators were about to see for the first time the new Prep offense. By the time the mud soaked players left the field and the rain soaked spectators left the stands, everybody was convinced the new "single wing" was a complete success. The Panthers attack was sparked by Joe Quinn, Lou Roselli, Pat Tomkins, and Ed Allen. Prep rolled up 363 yards rushing, while the Irish were able to pick up only 24 yards rushing and passing.

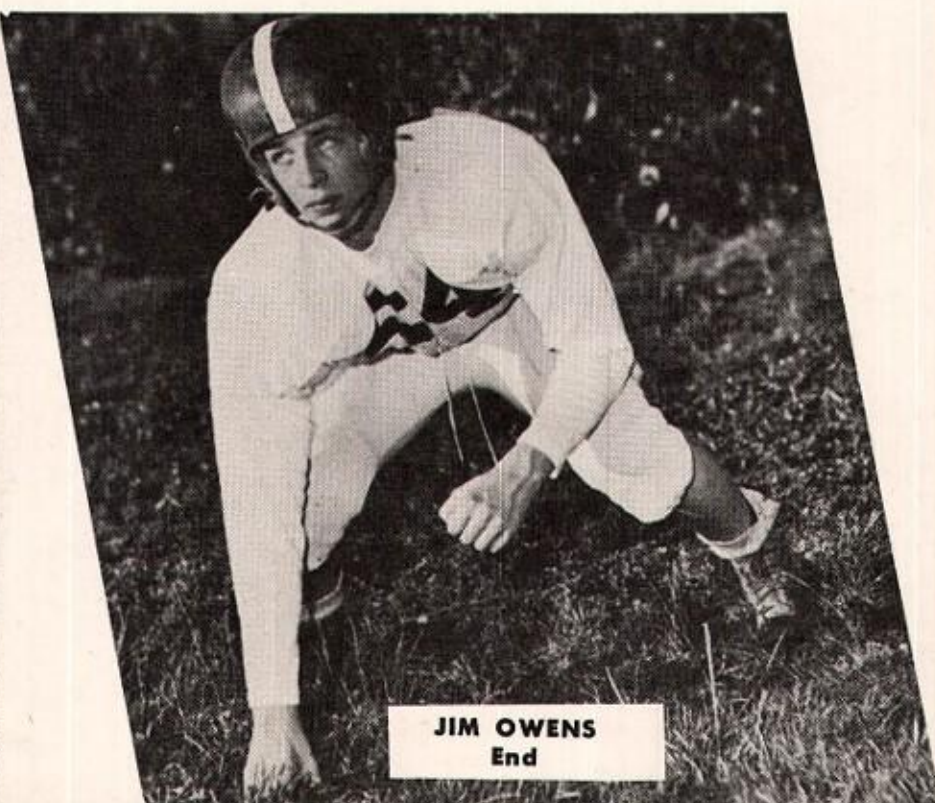

Prep scored twice in the first five minutes and added one touchdown in every other quarter. The scoring was taken care of by Roselli, Murphy, Ryan, Pascoe, and Siquenza. The extra points were scored by Roselli, who accounted for two, Pascoe, Quinn, and Lenoue.

A sure-shooting, aggressive Bremerton quintet overturned the Potent Panthers in the first of the two-game series 64-54. It was another Voegtlin-Harney duet that added all the Panthers points: Karl getting 27, and Jim hitting for 17. Halftime score was 28-24 in favor of the Wildcats. On the return game at Seattle U. gym the Wildcats sewed up the Cross-State title with a 56-44 drubbing of the Panthers. Voegtlin finished with only 15. Joe Quinn got 11, and Harney added 6. This placed Seattle Prep in third place with five wins and four defeats.

Starting slowly, the Millerites barely edged a scrapping Lincoln quintet 52-50 in Tacoma on January 5. Jim Harney steered the Panthers to victory with his 14 points in set shots at the crucial moments. Denny Murphy was also in on the 18 point splurge that brought the score to 33-31 in favor of Prep late in the third quarter. Voegtlin scored 26. In the second game the story was much different, as the Panthers coasted to an easy 49-35 victory. Voegtlin was pulled out early with his 22 points. Jack George and Phil Clark played fine defensive games.

On January 8, Johnny Goodwin's Panthers played their finest game of the year (in the second and third quarters anyway) as they were downed by Stadium 58-50. Phil Clark kept us in the game for a while by controlling the backboards over Boyd. Harney's set-shot was on for 19. Quinn added 10 more. In the return game the Panthers returned to their true form downing the Stadiumites 46-43. Quinn Voegtlin added 10 and 19. Tom Names had a bad night for Stadium and only hit for 16. Prep lead at the end of every period. John Carroll also saw action.

On January 13, Prep snowed under Bellarmine 50-26 in Tacoma. Prep pulled away in the first quarter 13-3, and then slowed down to a walk at the half 29-10. Pascoe, Layton, and Carroll played almost the whole game. Karl added 26 points to his total. In the return game the Panthers turned back a stubborn Bell five 40-35. The margin was 26-10 at the half. Jim Harney had one of his best nights adding 19. Jack George played his usually fine floor game and in addition added another 9. Steve LaRiviere hit the twine for 6.

The Panthers surged ahead 47-33 to hand Everett their first defeat of the cross-state season. The Gulls held a 12-11 first quarter advantage, and lead at the half 24-21. Karl Voegtlin hit 13 out of 14 at the free-throw line and gained 25 more points. Denny Murphy started and hit for 4. Quinn got 7. Jack George had 5. In the second game the Panthers broke all scoring records in beating the Gulls 29-24, sans Voegtlin, who was ill. Quinn and Jim Harney each garnered 12 and 11 respectively. Vance Layton and Carroll played good games. Halftime score was 19-12, Everett.

The Panthers opened their 1951-52 season with an impressive 58-48 win over the Lakeside Lions. Trailing after the opening quarter, 16-13, the Panthers spurted for 22 points to grab a 35-23 margin at halftime. The teams matched each other basket for basket in the second half. Karl Voegtlin dumped in 15 points in the first half, but cooled off in the second half to finish with 18 for the evening. Jack George contributed 11 points and Phil Clark and John Carroll 9 apiece. Jim Harney missed his first game because of illness.

Prep had a poor night and suffered their first defeat of the season in an overtime game at Bellevue by the score of 45-43. The entire Prep team made less than 20% of their shots, but Karl Voegtlin still managed to head the scorers with a 25 point total for the game. Joe Quinn was next in the scoring column, with 5 points. Carroll, George, Murphy, and Harney each collected 2.

The Panthers had their second straight off night and lost their second straight ball game, this time to Mount Vernon, by a 51-43 score. Prep managed to outplay the Mount Vernon Club in the first half and gained a halftime lead of 21-19. They couldn't hold on to the lead however, and Mount Vernon came back to lead at the end of the 3rd quarter. From there they went on to win—Voegtlin was high for the game with 21 points. Carroll and Harney were next with 7 apiece.

After losing two straight the Panthers finally came out of their slump and defeated their Eastern Washington rivals 55-33. Marquette lead only once during the game, in the second quarter by a 13-12 count. The Panthers then pulled away for good on two quick baskets by Voegtlin. Karl whipped in 22 points to again be high for the evening. Coach Goodwin called on the reserves for the last part of the game. Vance Layton was next in line in the Prep scoring with 7 points. Clair Markey, a usual jayvee was next with 6. —Voegtlin boosted his average to nearly 23 points per game.

Playing their traditional one game meet with Highline, the victorious Panthers threw a defensive web around the Highline Pirates, to the tune of 42-28. Jack George was again the defensive ace, holding Highline's All-Stater, Ron McDougall to 14 points. The Panther fast break was also clicking. Everybody got into the scoring column. Voegtlin and Harney tied for high point honors with 15 points apiece. The other points were evenly distributed among Carroll, Pascoe, Clark, Murphy, Quinn, and Clayton.

In the first game against Bellingham the Panther s didn't do what was expected of them and lost a close battle 55-47. Voegtlin and the whole team had an off night and they weren't working too well on the boards. The next night after downing the Irish, the Panther s met the Red Raiders on the S. U. court. The score: 53-43, in favor of Bellingham. Voegtlin scored 14 to boost his total for the season to 403 points. The Panther s famous 3rd quarter rally garnered 20 points, but fell short by 4. The points were well spread, and junior Jack Clayton again saw varsity action.

O'DEA 40-38-34

Karl Voegtlin tallied 8 points in the last quarter to give Prep its victory in the first game of a three game series. Behind for the first three quarters, Prep, with Denny Murphy's long shots, knotted the count at 33-33. They then went on the score a decisive victory over the Irish. Karl Voegtlin, though stopped by a tight defense in the first half, netted 19 points. LaRiviere and Murphy were second in the scoring column with a total of 8 points each. Quinn directed the Panthers from the floor.

In the second game of the series, Prep was stopped by a blanket around their ace Karl Voegtlin. Unable to score on long shots, Prep trailed at the half 24-21. The Panther s missed 11 free throws and scored only two field goals in the second half. Except for Voegtlin's 11 points, the scoring was evenly divided among Clark, Quinn, Murphy, and Harney.

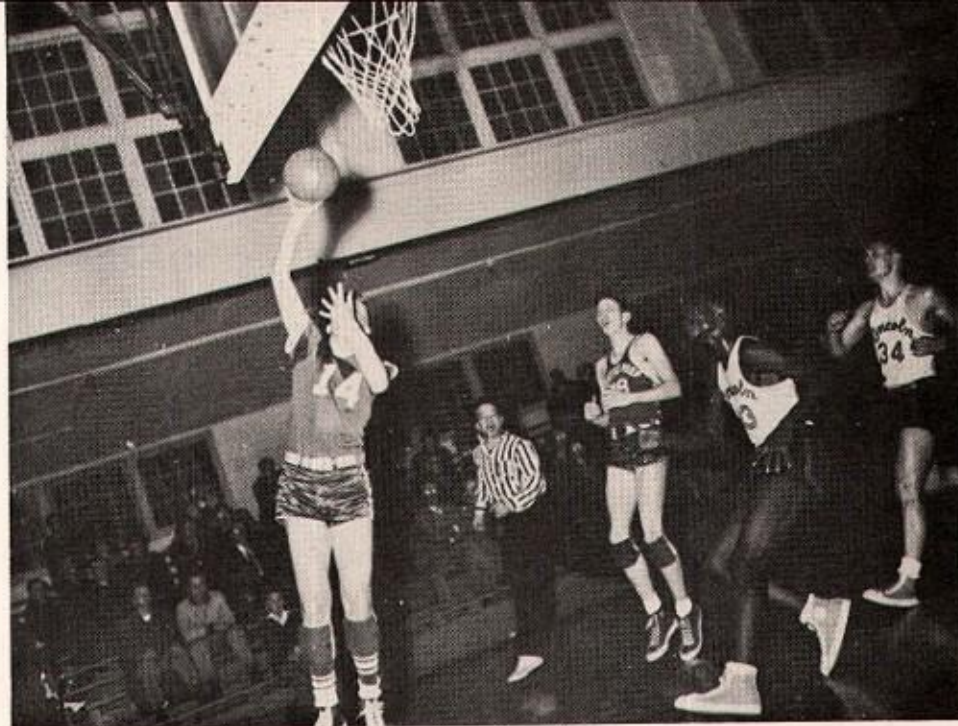

Coming from behind in the third game of the series, Prep took its seventh straight City Catholic Championship and earned the right to play in the Tacoma District Playoff. The Millerites overcame a 20-10 half time deficit on the strength of Joe Quinn and Jim Harney's second half shooting. Quinn scored ten of his twelve points in the second half, while Harney netted his nine points after the intermission. Both sides took the result in stride, and contrary to many pregame predictions, there were no riots following the game.

BELLARMINE 38 STADIUM 55

In the first game of the District Tournament in Tacoma, the Panther s displayed their most-polished scoring punch of the season and a flashy fast break which smothered the Bellarmine team 64-38. The Bells stayed even until early in the second period when the Millerites pulled away to lead at halftime 31-21. The starting line up pushed the margin to 37-21 early in the third quarter, and turned the better part of the final half over to the reserves. Karl Voegtlin took charge of the defensive boards and hit the hoop for 16 points to take high point honors. Joe Quinn who hit for 13, Jack Clayton who tossed in 8, and Jack George, all played bang up ball.

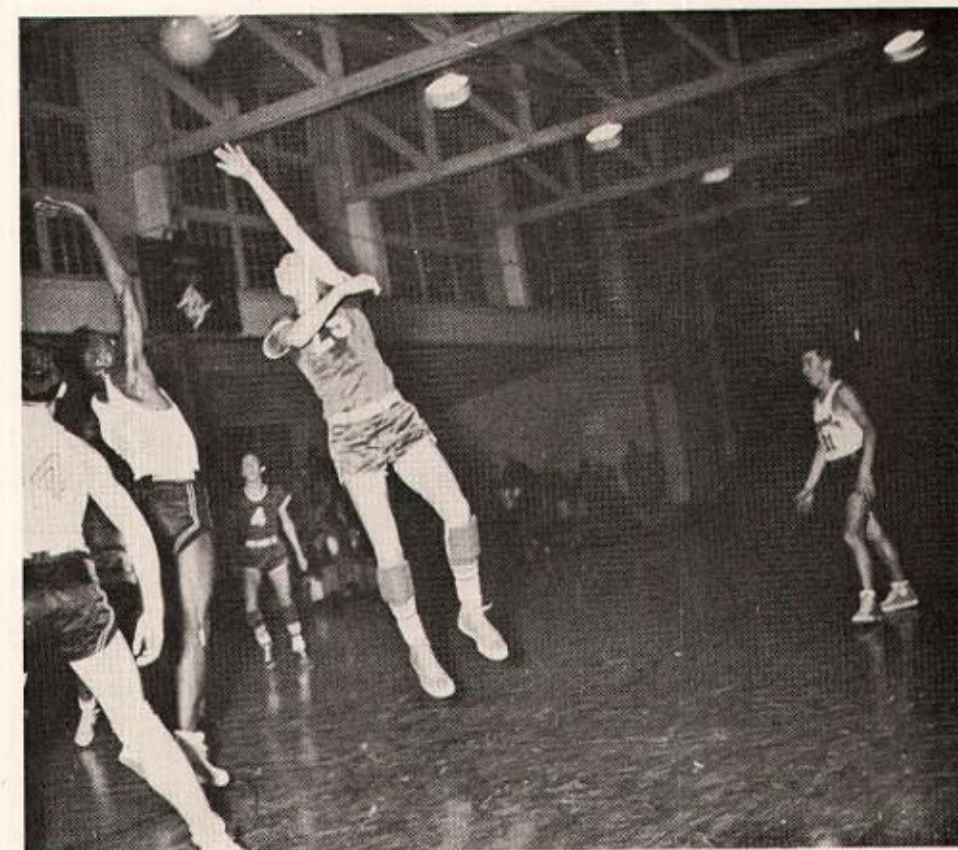

Hopes for Prep's entry into the state "A" were crushed by a sharp-shooting Stadium High School team 55-44. The Tigers were hot in the first half and pulled out to a 31-20 half time bulge. The Panther s couldn't get enough rebounds to come back in the last two periods, but with the shooting of Karl Voegtlin, they managed to narrow Stadium's lead to six points late in the 3rd quarter, 38-52, but the Tacoma boys roared back to a 51-38 spread and then stalled in the final four minutes. Voegtlin scored 19 to boost his total to 440 for the season. Quinn and Harney were next with 19 and 9 respectively.

Sporting a record of nine and nine this year's "B" squad quintet showed promise for a great varsity next year. Veterans Claire Markey and Larry Nord with 51 and 47 quarters experience carried much of the load for the midget Panthers. Pete Kendall at center improved much over last year and with Jack Serwold controlled the backboards. Dave McCulloch was the off-and-on scoring ace. Other members of the team that practiced with the "B" squad, but played varsity were Jack Clayton and Jeff Pascoe. Don Clark should also be included among the rising talent discovered. Lee Zwettler proved to be a hustler. Jerry Nord, Ted Gannon, Mike Melvin, Jim Kelleher and Gordy Sherman were also included in the team. Coach for this season was none other than the able Frank Ahern.

Fourteen first-year Prepsters won their letters in Frosh basketball this year. Each of these gained valuable experience over a long twenty-game schedule.

Leading the Frosh through this successful season was Captain Bill Rois whose scoring from his guard position was high for the season. Close behind Bill in total points were Mike Shea, Joe Manning, Dave Leigh, Larry Lombard, and Mickey Collins. The most improved boy on the team was 6'2" Dave Leigh who played forward and center and did yoeman work on the boards. Frequently starting at the forward spots were Mickey Collins, Mike Shea and John Riggs. The guard department was capably handled by Rois, Larry Lombard and Joe McLaughlin.

INTRAMURAL

Now we come to that part of sports that all Prepsters follow avidly, Intramural ball. More simply to the masses "Alley ball." This year a surprisingly good outfit by the name of the 4A Loganberries took all competition. The squad was composed of: Tom Budinick, Garth Houlihan, Bob Carmody, John Topel, John Ryan, Ralph Sycamore, Carlo Leonetti, Dick Waters, Mike Holmes, Con Giacomini, and Jerry Murphy, who played one game and missed two shots. The Junior division champ was 1C. In the final game of the year 4A defeated 4B for the divisional championship 9-7 in a torrid scoring ball game.

The 1C outfit included Gerry Moore, Bud Voermans, Jerry Sullivan, Ted Kolb, Mickey Sullivan, and Steve Medelia. The annual All-Star team that faced the Varsity in a two game affair was lead by: John Topel, leading intramural scorer; Larry McCauley, leading junior scorer; Garth Houlihan; Bob Carmody; John Mingus; Louie Roselli; and Winn Brindle. Write-in candidates were Ron Farrell and Pat Gleeson. The Senior Varsity displayed the talents of: Phil Clark, Joe Quinn, John Carroll, Claire Markey, Denny Murphy, Jeff Pascoe, Karl Voegtlin, Steve LaRiviere, and Jim Harney. Vance Layton also played for the Varsity.

The officiating at the games was remarkably improved over last year. Under the direction of Bob Mooney, and Tony Mingus, plus other helpful varsity players we had two refs at every game. For an intramural contest at this school, that is doing well! Hal Brindle also aided in the officiating. Other names of the various teams included: Renner's Rinks, Hurley's Future Paraphrastics, Hess's Heretics, Posson's Pushovers, Mac's Madmen, and many others.

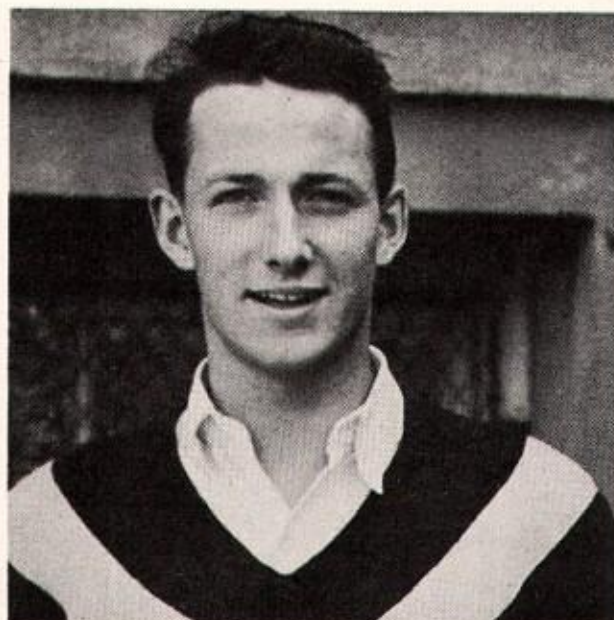

The 4B "Barflies" who lost each Senior round to the 4A Champs included in their ranks: Lou Roselli, Bob Guinasso, Jay Locket, Pat Tompkins, Jerry Kenny, Winn Brindle, Chris Melgard, Bob Mooney, Gerry Welch, Fred Lyons, Jack Guise, and Dave Smith. Phil Clark was coach.

Ron McMullen

Bill Baldwin

John Ryan

With three holdovers from last year's All-City champions, Bill Baldwin, John Ryan, Ron McMullen, plus newcomers, Tom Roe, Dick Abrams, and Dan McMullen, the Ski team had a fairly good record this year.

The snow-flying Panthers took third in the Beta Cup Race, winding up behind Bellevue and Ballard—but still ahead of ten other teams from Washington and Oregon. In the last two years the Prep skiers placed second in the Beta Cup contest.

In a four way invitational meet at Leavenworth the team took fourth spot. In the All-City Meet the defending champions met with but mediocre success, taking 5th spot in the racing.

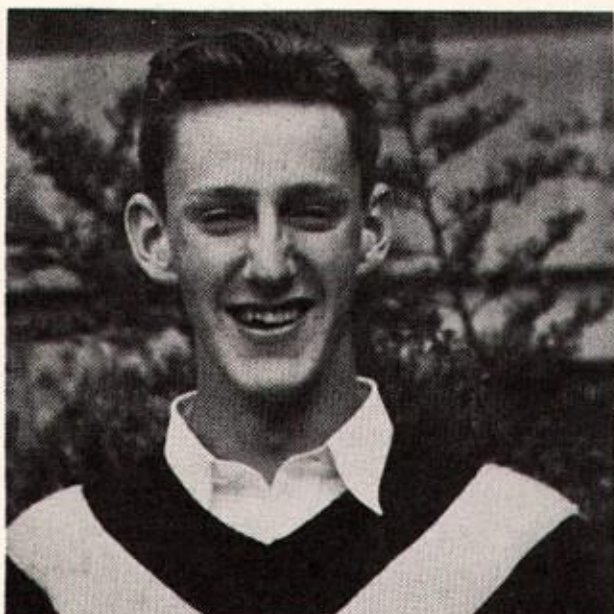

The team was slowed down this year by the fact that they didn't have consistent coaching as in past years. Further, the loss of the famous snow-sport Holt Brothers (Fritz) left the team without its previous all-round punch.

The first in a series of four Stevens Pass Standard races provided the first real opportunity to study Prep's snow flyers. The race finished—Ryan and Baldwin took second and fifth respectively.

In the first meet of the year—at Leavenworth—the Panthers took fourth place. Prep had the best slalom team with Ryan 4th, Baldwin 5th, and Roe 9th. However, Prep was weak in other departments. The complete results were: Wenatchee, Leavenworth, Ballard, Prep, Walla Walla, and Yakima—in that order. Lee Crabtree, formerly on the S. U. Ski team, acted as coach in the Beta Cup race.

The windup of the year was the All-City meet, and after the spray had cleared away, Bellevue was the new champion, closely followed by the Ballardtown Beavers. Ryan was Prep's best, taking second in the slalom and the 4 way combined. Ron McMullen ran his best races of the year, copping 6th in the downhill, slipping to 22nd in the slalom, but coming back to take 10th in the jumping and 11th in the Cross-Country—all this placed him 9th in the 4-way combined.

With the squad loaded with seniors who will leave in May, the Ski squad will be wide open for new members next year.

VARSITY BASEBALL

Under the hustling leadership of Mr. Lucid, S. J., the Horsehiders were off to a good start this year. The keynote of this year was the many practice games with Ballard, Franklin, Queen Anne and Garfield. With improving batting form and hustling fielders, pitchers Carlo Leonetti and Vance Layton defeated the Bulldogs 8-0. Queen Anne also fell before the sway of the Panthers 7-6. Dennis Murphy is whacking his homers, and Larry McCauley is the leading hitter. Eddie Allen is the main backstop. Joe Quinn leads in the stolen base department, and "Ole Stork" Voegtlin is again at first. Lou Roselli is in the outfield. Newcoming pitchers are Dave Schneider, Dick Swanson, and Paul Dempsey. Although it is too early in the season to tell, many sophomores appear to have cut the grade. Larry Hoyt is pitching, and Rabbit Jack George is in the infield. Phil Johnston and Jim Kelleher are among the promising sophs.

With the opening of the Cross-State baseball season on April 18 at Everett, the Panthers got off to a good start by sweeping a double header. With the remainder of the season to be completed before the end of school we can only look hopefully towards the excellent records of the Panthers against Lakeside, Queen Anne, Franklin, Ballard, Highline, and Garfield. Without casting any ill luck on the Horsehiders' hopes we wish them the best of luck and a Cross-State trophy.

With a turnout of over 108 Freshmen for Soph-Frosh baseball, the name of this sport might well be changed to simply Frosh Baseball. The Underclassmen were ably coached this year by two coaches, Mr. Gordon Keys, and Father Joseph Logan, S. J. Keynoting the season was the initial victory of 2-1 over the Franklin scrubs. The other games on the schedule will be arranged "catch as catch can," to quote Father Logan. The Soph-Frosh starting lineup arranged themselves something like this: Freshmen pitchers, Don Carlson, Jim Allen, Mike Shea, and Soph "Smokey" Stover. Frosh Infielders Jack Covello, Harvey Roberts, Jerry Sullivan, and Mike Shea, again. Soph outfielders included Lee Zwettler and Jim McElhinney. Freshmen gardeners were: Dave Morgan, Jim Pritchard, Jim Nagle, Tony Meagher, and Mike Fagan. Ralph Alferi will handle the catcher's spot.

TRACK

This year with the absence of the usual plentiful talent found at Adelphi, Coach John V. Snerringer, S. J., had to utilize the plentiful underclassmen. The record book gives mute testimony to the success of his efforts: Prep 60, Bothell 62; Prep 70, Lakeside 43; Prep 37, North Kitsap 53. Assisting Father was Assistant Coach Jim Smith '49. Mainstays on the team were: Senior hurdler Tom Budinich, and Sprintman Tony Mingus, Shot putter Fred Lyons, and the McMullin brothers who handled the Mile. Junior members of the squad were: Pat Gleeson, Dan Lenoue, Bob Denini, Tom Verd, and Jack Serwald. Other underclassmen included on the team were: Andy Anderson, Lee LaPierre, Jerry Nord, Ken Vanderhoef, Ken Bermingham, Dave McCulloch, Lee Stann, and Jerry Kenny, Senior 880 man. The track team has a large schedule to complete before the end of school. Included among the many meets are the Centralia Relays, Bremerton meet, and of course the Cross State Track Meet. With the records established thus far the Panthers should score some firsts. Tom Budinich has garnered the most points—41 in number. Tony Mingus also possesses over thirty. Pat Gleeson has 21.

Chris Melgard, veteran shot putter, if he remains in competition should match his seasonal record. Winn Brindle, discus man, was forced by conflicting activities to give up the track sport. He was off to a good start. It is interesting to note at this present time that in the past three years under Father Snerringer's tutelage, the track teams have gained in the amount of points they have won at the various meets.
